Preface

This is the story of James M. Butler and Patrick Henry Butler. They are sons of Christopher Columbus Butler and Mahala Cole Butler. James was born in Georgia before the family moved to Alabama. Patrick was born after Christopher and Mahala moved to Shelby County Alabama. Around 1830, the family moved to Coosa County Alabama.

James and Patrick both married in Alabama, raised their families and then moved them to Tennessee. Before the Civil War, they lived near the border between Walker County and Fayette County in Alabama. They moved to Tennessee after the war with James settling in Decatur County and Patrick settling in Wayne County.

This book includes both the ancestors and the descendants of James M. Butler and Patrick Henry Butler. The history of the Butlers in Ireland is presented for reference since no linkage has been established with the Irish Butler family. Family members are encouraged to participate in genealogical DNA testing at www.butlerdna.org to try to establish this linkage.

This book is prepared with material from a variety of sources. Some of it is verified and some is not. Of course, the best source of this information is from family members. As scribe for this effort, I will gladly accept any corrections and/or additions. Please check my web site at www.30504.com for the latest information.

Acknowledgements

It is difficult to recognize all of the people who have contributed to an effort such as this but some people deserve special recognition. Madine Butler Evans no doubt provided much of the base line material including the family histories that are included here. Howard Butler built on Madine's research and expanded the scope of the insight into the various Butler lines. Ginny Pitts transcribed Howard's research and provided the basis for my database and the resulting web site. John Russell Butler has worked as a co-researcher for the Patrick Henry Butler line and has provided much new material for this fifth edition.

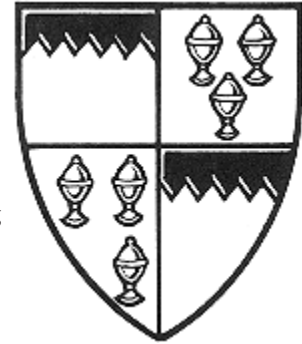

I would like to extend my personal thanks to everyone who has contributed to this effort.

Butler

de Butlér

Eoin O Mahony (q.v.), a Cork lawyer and inimitable raconteur who popularized Irish family history in his lively broadcasts from Radio Eireann, said of the Butler family: “Numerically and historically the Burkes, FitzGerald and Butlers are the three Norman families outstanding in the moulding of the history of Ireland following the invasion of 1169. They have been remarkably consistent in producing able churchmen, soldiers and administrators. Their history brings them to the forefront of Irish history for 800 years”.

The tomb of Piers and Margaret Butler in Kilkenny.

They are also a very well-documented and close-knit family. The Butler Society girdles the world, and this accounts for the success of their international rally held in their castle at Kilkenny every few years.

Butler is a common name in both England and Ireland. In fact, there has usually been a Butler in both camps. The Butlers came to Ireland when Theobald Fitzwalter (d. 1205), whose brother was Archbishop of Canterbury, landed in Waterford in 1185 with Prince John (later to be King). Theobald was awarded generous grants of land in counties Limerick, Tipperary and Wicklow and Henry II gave him the hereditary title of Le Boitiler-the king’s chief butler, a title of function.

Theobald was a popular family name. A later Theobald (d. 1285) was the Butler who was awarded the Royal grant of the “prisage of wines”, which meant he was entitled to “about one tenth of the cargo of any wine ship that broke bulk in Ireland”. In 1810, this rewarding office was declared redundant and Walter Butler, Marquess of Ormond, fell heir to 216,000 pounds in compensation.

Consolidating their position, the Butlers ringed the country with castles, married noble Irish ladies, fervently built churches and abbeys and went on the Crusades. Because of their closeness to the English court, the Butlers collected at least 25 patents of nobility, so that branches of the house of Ormond--the main Butler designation--included such titles as Dunboyne, Cahir, Mountgarrett, Galmoy, Ossory. There have been a number of Butler bishops, including Edmund, Prior of Athassel Abbey in Tipperary for fourteen years until 1537, when Thomas Cromwell deposed him. The Butlers fell victim to the Cromwellians, who feared their power in Ireland. They were strong military men, who took part in all the main battles from Agincourt in France to the Boyne and Aughrim.

Thomas Butler, 7th Earl of Ormond (d. 1515), was grandfather to Anne Boleyn, second wife of Henry VIII, who, although she lost her head, provided him with the daughter who was to become Queen Elizabeth I. This fearsome queen features in voluminous Butler records. Her cousin, the 10th Earl of Ormond, Thomas Butler (d. 1614), who had been reared at the English court, built a magnificent Tudor manor at Carrick-on-Suir, County Tipperary, expecting her to visit him, which she failed to do. Lord Dunboyne, the present Butler family historian, writes in his Butler Family History: “The Butlers bred like rabbits immune from myxomatosis”. Black Tom, as the 10th Earl of Ormond was nicknamed, was a prime example. Three times married, he had, apart from his legal offspring, twelve known illegitimate children. One of his natural sons who received considerable estates from his father, Piers Fitzthomas Butler, according to a strong local tradition, was the fruit of Thomas’ affection for the Virgin Queen!

The Butlers and the FitzGerald, the mighty Earls of Kildare, despite intermarrying, were constantly feuding. Between them they alternated the administration of Ireland.

Eight Butlers held the office of Viceroy of Ireland. Because of his fidelity to the royal house of Stuart during the Cromwellian usurpations, Charles II raised James Butler (1610-88), the 12th Earl, to the Dukedom of Ormond, together with a variety of other titles. James played an important role in the affairs of both England and Ireland. He was Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and Chancellor of the universities of both Dublin and Oxford. He helped incorporate the College of Physicians and founded the Royal Record Office and the Genealogical Office in Dublin Castle. Another of the great Duke's benefactions was Dublin's Phoenix Park. Its 1,752 acres make it larger than all of London's parks put together and it is still greatly enjoyed by today's citizens. James, the 1st Duke of Ormond, described as a very straight man, a prime example of the remarkable talents of the Butlers in the field of administration, was awarded the distinction of burial in Westminster Abbey.

James Butler

Pierce Butler, 3rd Viscount Galmoy (1652-1740), was a soldier. He took part in the siege of Derry, the battles of the Boyne and Aughrim and, with Patrick Sarsfield, he campaigned in Europe. Pierce signed the Treaty of Limerick on behalf of the Irish following the Jacobite defeat at the Boyne. A kinsman, Sir Toby Butler of Ballyline, County Clare, solicitor to the unfortunate King James II, drew up the Treaty.

John Butler (1716-1800), who was Catholic Bishop of Cork in 1763, unexpectedly found himself 12th Lord Dunboyne, a very prestigious Butler title. At the age of 70 he felt he should provide an heir. He petitioned Pope Pius VI for leave to marry, but was summarily refused. He renounced the Church and married his cousin, but there was no heir. On his deathbed, aged 84, he returned to the Church and, despite family opposition to his will, managed to leave, if not his castle of Dunboyne, at least a Dunboyne endowment, to Maynooth College, County Kildare.

Eleanor Butler (1745-1829), sister of the 17th Earl, caused enormous scandal when she eloped with her neighbour, Sarah Ponsonby. They lived together for the rest of their lives in Wales where they created a world-famous and picturesque home and were known as "The Ladies of Llangollen".

The Honourable Simon Butler, born in Dublin in 1757, was the first president of the Society of United Irishmen, and a distinguished lawyer. When he had to flee to Scotland because of his political activities, he directed the Society from there. In the same unhappy period, John Butler (1808-54), 2nd Marquess of Ormond and 20th Earl, was greatly loved in Kilkenny, where he helped his tenants by reducing their rents, in some cases writing them off completely.

Major-General Sir William Butler (1838-1910) of Bansha, County Tipperary, who helped found the National University of Ireland, had his differences with the British government, accusing them of forcing the Boers into war. His wife was the Lady Butler who painted Roll Call, and many battle scenes of the Victorian era. One of their sons was Dom Richard Butler, a Benedictine monk who taught at the abbeys of Gorey, County Wexford, and Worth and Downside in England. He was a chaplain in both the First and Second World Wars.

Following the colonization of Ireland, thousands of exiled Irishmen went to Europe to earn their living as professional soldiers, and consequently they often found themselves fighting against their own countrymen who had joined the opposing army - the Irish on the English side attacking the Irish on the French or Spanish side! This happened to the Butlers too, especially to James (1655-1713), the 2nd Duke of Ormond, who was first colonel of Justin MacCarthy's Mountcashel Regiment in France in 1690.

Some Butlers went further east. A member of the Kilkenny family was the first to capture a Russian two-decker ship, and there is a belief that it could have been a David Butler who was instrumental in founding the Russian navy.

Many Butlers went to America to take part in the War of Independence. The Marquis de Lafayette once said that when he wanted anything done well he got a Butler to do it. Five high-ranking Butler brothers fought in the American War of Independence. They served again, with their sons, in the 1812 to 1814 dispute and in the American Civil War. As happened to so many families, they had gone their different ways and some were on the Confederate side and others on the Federal. Pierce Butler (1744-1822) was the third son of Sir Richard Butler of Carlow. He was a Senator and a major in the 29th Regiment. Marriage settled him firmly in South Carolina, where he was active on his estate and in politics. A wealthy, dictatorial aristocrat, he was also a champion of democracy.

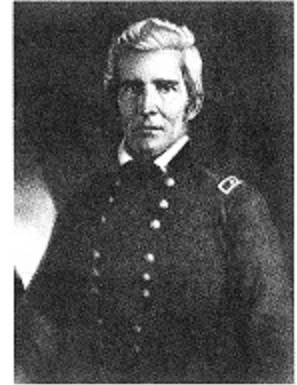

The American Butlers were obviously admirers of Benjamin Franklin, for several of them adopted his name. Benjamin Franklin Butler (1818-93) was of Ulster stock - Scotch-Irish. His father, John Butler, had been a captain of dragoons for Jackson at New Orleans. An adventurer, he held a privateer's commission from Simon Bolivar. His son, another Benjamin Franklin Butler, was a congressman and Governor of Massachusetts.

He also had an astounding army career. In 1861, having built up a fortune, he was appointed to be Brigadier-General of Militia. With the money and the men at the ready, he was as much in the news as Lincoln after Fort Sumpter. In Australia there have been many Irish Butlers. A remarkable man, Edward Butler (1823-79), was born in Kilkenny and, though destined for the Church, was found unsuitable. He turned to nationalistic journalism, which involved him in the fiery Young Ireland movement. During the Famine years he edited the Galway Vindicator with great determination. In 1852, finding it increasingly difficult to exercise freedom of speech, he made the long voyage to Sydney. From journalism he turned to law and reached the Legislative Council. As Attorney-General he presided over many controversies.

In 1922, during the Civil War in Ireland, the 5th Marquess, the Earl of Ossory, and his wife were in residence in Kilkenny Castle when it was taken over by the Republicans. At the same time they were being besieged from the outside by the Free State army. The siege lasted two days, little damage was done and both sides gave themselves credit for rescuing the Butlers!

Today the 7th Marquess, Charles Butler, the 31st Chief Butler, who lives in Illinois in the United States, lacks a male heir and there is much speculation as to who his successor will be. Lord Dunboyne suggests that "someone with the name Butler in some modest dwelling in Ireland or overseas may, unknowingly, be the rightful eventual heir". It has to be remembered, however, that it was customary for servants to adopt their masters' names, so that there could be hundreds of Butlers without a touch of the ducal Ormond blood. There are estimated to be about 9,000 Irish Butlers, not taking into account the many who have long since emigrated.

One of the achievements of the Butler Society has been to set up the Butler Archive in the South Tower of Kilkenny Castle. Archives are an invaluable resource in providing records of the chequered history of Ireland. When President John F. Kennedy visited Ireland in 1963, the enthusiastic Irish government presented him with a fourteenth-century treaty made between the 1st Earl of Ormond and an O'Kennedy chieftain. This treasure had been donated to the National Library by the Butler's chieftain, but many felt that it was incorrect to denude the nation of such an irreplaceable treasure, even for the President of the United States of America.

General William Orlando Butler (1791-1880) was one of many Irish-Americans who pursued a distinguished career in the military. He served in the Mexican War and fought for the North in the Civil War.

The Butlers were sound builders and many of their castles around Ireland are still standing. Kilkenny Castle and its rose gardens is in constant use for exhibitions and conventions, and important occasions such as the annual Kilkenny Arts Festival and the International Butler Rally.

Across from the impressive Kilkenny Castle are the magnificent Ormond stables. They were converted to the Kilkenny Design Workshops, a semi-state organization, since disbanded, which fulfilled its purpose by greatly raising the standards of Irish design in everything from engineering to crafts.

Other important Butler castles include Cahir Castle in County Tipperary, the largest and best-preserved late fifteenth-century castle in Ireland open to the public. Knappogue, a rugged castle near the coast in Quin, County Clare, is used for medieval banquets. Part of it was occupied by an American couple who restored it. The Butler Arms hotel in Waterville was a castle and is now a popular County Kerry hotel, once a favourite of Charlie Chaplin and his large family. Black Tom's Tudor mansion at Carrick-on-Suir, County Tipperary, which Elizabeth I never came to visit, is on view regularly.

From the widespread Butler tree descend such diverse characters as Father Theobald Mathew (1790-1856), the apostle of Irish sobriety who was a Butler kinsman. The great poet, William Butler Yeats (1865-1939), was proud of his connection. It was Mary Butler who suggested to the Irish President, Arthur Griffith (1871-1922), the name for his new Home Rule party, Sinn Féin, meaning “we ourselves”, to signify Irish self-reliance.

Hubert Butler (1900-90) of Bennetsbridge, County Kilkenny, a custodian of the Butler Society, taught English in Leningrad before Stalin and worked in Vienna in 1938 helping Jews to escape the pogroms. In Yugoslavia he witnessed the “conversion” of the Serbian Orthodox Christians by Croatian Catholics, a forerunner of latter-day “ethnic cleansing”. Against this varied political background he became one of the most respected essayists of this century.

Zachariah Butler

This Butler family story begins in Hanover County, Virginia in 1736 with the birth of Zachariah Butler. What is known of Zachariah is that he was a man of small stature at five foot four inches tall. He joined the Revolutionary War at the age of forty four on 2 September 1780 in Mecklinburg County, Virginia. Zachariah married Sarah Bowe, daughter of Henry Bowe (1680-?) an English emigrant, and Sarah Fitzpatrick. The Butler family had five children: 1)-James I, 2)-Patrick, 3)-Nathan, 4)-Zachariah and 5)-Nancy. After the war ended, the Butler family migrated to Wilkes County, Georgia (now Elbert County) in 1785. Zachariah died in Elbert County, Georgia in about 1800 and is buried in Fortsonia, Elbert County, Georgia.

First son James I (5 June 1758-1841) was born in St. Pauls Parish, Virginia. James served for 22 months in the Revolutionary War from Mecklinburg County, Virginia in 1778 to 1781 and was in the battle of Woods Point on the James River. He was a Private in Captain James Anderson's Company and Col. John Burton's Regiment. He was awarded a land grant in Wilkes County, Georgia for his service. He migrated to Wilkes County, Georgia in 1785 and lived there until 1836 when he migrated to Shelby County, Alabama to be near his children who were already living in Shelby County. James joined a wagon train under the command of Jordan Jones to make the journey to Alabama. James was married twice, first to Sarah Christopher, then to Disa. He was believed to be the father of 20-22 children. James I died in 1841 and was buried in the Jones Bailey Cemetery in Shelby County near the grave of his friend Jordan Jones. One of James' daughters, Sarah, married Willis Ozley and the Ozley family migrated to Shelby County, Alabama and is covered in more detail in the article The Family of John Willis Ozley in this book. One of James' sons, James II, married Elizabeth Hansard, daughter of William Hansard, also a Revolutionary War veteran, in Elbert County, Georgia on 23 December 1823 and this Butler family is covered in more detail in the article The Butler Family of Marion Jefferson Butler in this book.

Second son Patrick was also a veteran of the Revolutionary War and is buried in Fortsonia, Georgia with his father. The families of Patrick eventually migrated to Louisiana and possibly to Texas. Third son Nathan and his family migrated to Morgan County, Georgia. Fourth son Zachariah and his family migrated to Maury County, Tennessee in approximately 1810. Fifth child and only daughter Nancy married John Snellings and lived in Elbert County, Georgia.

James Butler

James Butler was born 5 June 1758 in Hanover County, Virginia. His parents were Zachariah Butler and Sarah Bowe. Both James and his father were soldiers in the Virginia Continental Line during the American Revolution.

By 1785 Zachariah was on the tax digest for Wilkes County, Georgia. About this time James came also to Wilkes County, Georgia and about this time married Sarah Christopher. This part of Wilkes County is now Elbert County.

About 1836 James Butler moved to Shelby County, Alabama. He was drawing a pension for his Revolutionary War service and when he had his pension transferred to Shelby County he gave as his reason for moving here that he had ten children at that time living in Shelby County.

His last pension check was paid in September 1841 and he died before the next year's payment was due. He is buried in the Jones-Bailey Cemetery in Shelby County, Alabama.

James Butler had an estimated 21 children. Late in life he married Disa - His known children by Sarah were: Zachariah, married Nancy Bullard in Elbert County, Georgia and moved to Shelby County, Alabama before 1820. Christopher, married Mahala Cole in Elbert County, Georgia and came to Shelby County before 1820, moved to Coosa County, Alabama where he died. Sarah, married Willis Ozley (see Ozley Family) in Elbert County, Georgia and came to Shelby County before 1820. Martha, married Asa Jones in Elbert County, Georgia and came to Shelby County before 1820. Mary, married Abraham Naish in Elbert County, Georgia and came to Shelby before 1820 (See Naish Family). Nancy, married George B. Naish in Elbert County, Georgia and came to Shelby County before 1820; she is buried in Coosa County, Alabama. James, married Elizabeth Frances Hansard in Elbert County, Georgia and moved to Shelby County about 1836 with his father.

Children of James Butler by his second wife, Disa: Piety, married in Shelby County, Alabama to George Richard Crowson Harless; they are buried in the Harless Cemetery. Richmond, married Mary Leonard in Shelby County, Alabama; they are believed to be buried in Chilton County, Alabama.

Christopher Butler

Christopher Butler was the son of Sally and Revolutionary War soldier James Butler. James (b 5 June 1758 St. Paul Parish, Hanover, Virginia), was the son of Zachariah Butler (b ca 1736; Hanover, Virginia), and Sarah Bowe (b ca 1755-1757 Hanover) the daughter of Henry Bowe Jr. and Sarah Fitzpatrick.

In the 1785 Early Tax Digest of Wilkes County, Georgia, James received bounty land for his service in the War. He removed to Georgia right after 1790 to live on his land, which by then was located in Elbert County, formed from Wilkes County.

James was a resident of Elbert County for 46 years. He was a member first of Bethel "E" Baptist Church, and later in Elbert County of Falling Creek Baptist located on old Post Road, Elberton, Elbert County.

In 1833 James applied for and received a pension, the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 6, 1832.

In 1836, James, along with neighbors and relatives, moved to Shelby County Alabama in a wagon train headed by Jordan Jones. Jordan had been a neighbor of James in Elbert County for 30 years, and helped James join his family in Alabama. On June 5, 1837 James applied to have his pension changed to his new residence in Alabama. He gave the following reasons for removing "from the State of Georgia - "because I have ten children who reside in Shelby County Alabama and I am desirous to spend the short residue of my life with them. This and this alone was the only cause which induced me to remove."

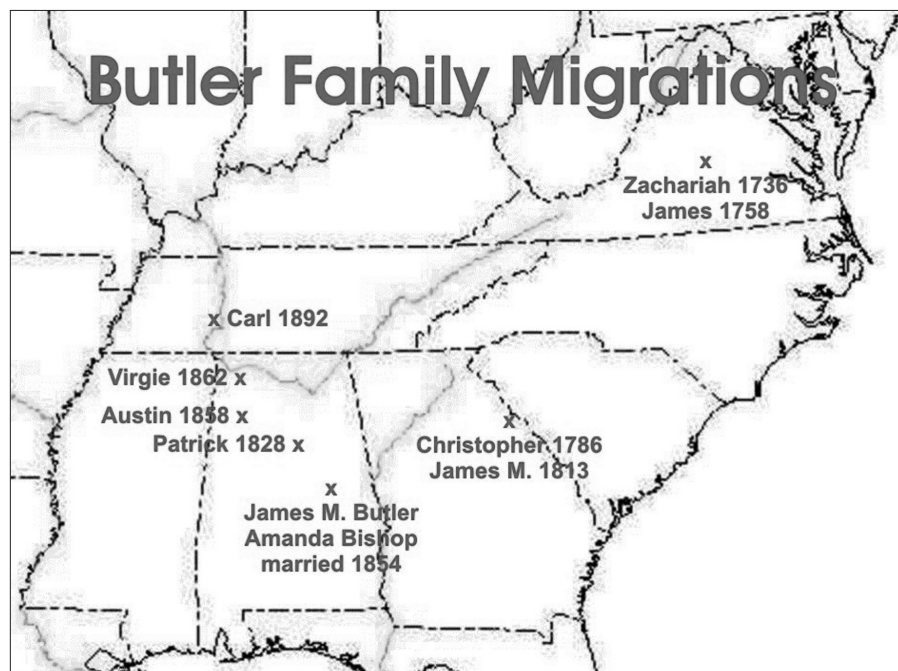

A granddaughter of James married a son of Jordan Jones. James died after June 1, 1840, and was buried in what later became the Jones-Bailey Cemetery on land belonging to Jordan. James was possibly the first person to have been buried there. A collection of stones in a built up rectangle with sloping sides and flattened top was placed over his grave site. Such mounds of stones were also used back in Georgia to marker earlier Butler graves. When Jordan Jones died he was buried very near James. The cemetery is listed on the State Historical Registry, James Butler was twice married and was the father of 21 children. On October 16, 1983, a monument was dedicated and placed by the Shelby Historical Society. (See The Heritage of Blount County and Cullman County.)

James M. Butler and Patrick Henry Butler

James M. and Patrick Henry Butler were both sons of Christopher Columbus Butler and Mahala Cole Butler. James was the oldest and was born in Georgia before the family moved to Alabama. Patrick was born after Christopher and Mahala moved to Shelby County Alabama. Around 1830, the family moved to Coosa County Alabama. The history and descendants of James and Patrick is provided in more detail in the following pages.

Butler Land in Alabama

The only land owned by James M. Butler and Amanda Bishop that has been found recorded is in Walker Co. AL. James M. Butler received a land grant for 80 acres in Walker Co. on March 1, 1858. They acquired 80 additional acres that were granted to John Cargile on March 1, 1858. They sold the total 160 acres shortly afterwards on February 27, 1860 to Noah and Mary Ann Parris. It is believed that this is the time that the Butler family left Walker Co. AL and moved to Franklin County near Tuscombua, AL. For some reason, the deed transfer was not recorded until January 2, 1882 when the land was resold.

Walker County Alabama Ancestral Homesteads, published by Bill and Sue Tubbs of Jasper, AL.

In the 1860 census, Noah and Mary Ann Parris are living in nearby Fayette Co. AL adjacent to Patrick Henry Butler and Mary Ann Butler Daniel. The records at the Bureau of Land Management tell us that Noah Parris received a land grant in Fayette Co. AL on December 1, 1859. His grant was in section 33 of Township 14-S, Range 10-W while James M. Butler's land grant was in section 8 of Township 14-S, Range 9-W. Simple math tells us that in 1860, James M. Butler lived about seven miles from his brother Patrick Henry Butler and his sister Mary Ann Butler Daniel. Their mother was living in the James Daniel household with her daughter.

George Handley, whose sons would later marry Patrick Henry Butler's daughters, received land grants in section 2 and section 3 of Township 16-S, Range 9-W in Fayette Co. AL. This would put him about 11 miles from James M. Butler and 10 miles from Patrick Henry Butler in 1860.

Butler Land in Tennessee

The only land owned by Patrick Henry Butler and Agnes Terry Daniel is found recorded in the seventh civil district in Lauderdale Co. AL in 1907 when it is sold to their son, James Russell Butler. There is some confusion about the location of this land since the land is sold by James Russell Butler in 1908 and recorded as being in the seventh civil district of Wayne Co. TN.

James Russell Butler deed to T. E. Mitchell

Patrick Henry Butler

Patrick Henry Butler was born on August 12, 1826, in Shelby County, AL. He was the son of Christopher Columbus and Mahala Cole Butler. On October 1, 1850, he married Agnes Tarrah Daniel in Marshall County (Lewisburg), TN. Records of this marriage were only recently discovered. In the 1850 census for Marshall County, there was at least one other Butler household in the county at that time. It has not been determined if these were relatives of Patrick. In 1860, Patrick was living in Fayette County, AL, near his brother James M. Butler.

The following information comes from his military records. There are no records available that we can find that give the exact date of Patrick's enlistment into Confederate service. He is listed in Co. H., 6th Regiment, AL Cavalry. In an affidavit in Patrick's pension file, he states that he was conscripted and carried into service in late 1863 and placed under Colonel Pickett. It should also be noted that when he entered the CSA he either left six children and an expecting wife, or seven children and wife. There is no more documentation of his Confederate service. According to his Union military record he was captured by Union forces on May 26, 1864, near Decatur, AL. His capture, along with the following dates, is documented in his Union file. From Decatur he was next documented in Nashville, TN. May 30, 1864, shipped from Nashville to Louisville, KY. May 30, 1864, received at Louisville, KY. June 4, 1864, shipped from Louisville, KY to Rock Island, IL. June 6, 1864, arrived at Rock Island, IL.

Rock Island Prison has often been called the Andersonville of the North. Although the death rate was very high among prisoners, this rate decreased significantly after the diseased prisoners were separated. According to information, the prisoners were fed one meal per day consisting of approximately 12 oz. cornbread, 4 1/2 oz. salt meat, and 2 oz. beans. The bread was shaped like bricks and according to one prisoner's diary, it was about as hard. Some days they were fed as late as 2:00 p.m., and other days not fed at all. Rats and mice were eaten when they could catch them. It was reported that even dogs came up missing. It is probably impossible for us to imagine the conditions and hardships of this time in history. (More information about this prison is available on their Web site).

Roll Call, Rock Island, IL

On October 6, 1864, Patrick signed an oath of allegiance to the US, for which he received $100.00 bounty and was placed with the US (Rebs) Volunteers Co. E., 2nd Regiment. He was then assigned to one year of frontier service. The term, Reb, must have been a way of identifying ex-Confederate soldiers.

This is the way it is stated on the enlistment papers. At the time of his enlistment, Butler was described as being age 40, complexion dark, hair dark, eyes grey, and height 5 ft. 7 in.

After his enlistment on October 6, 1864, Patrick is next documented on March 18, 1865, at Fort Riley, KS, as being sick. Patrick states in a later affidavit that he suffered severe frostbite of both feet while en route to Fort Zero in January 1865, and was treated at the post hospital at Fort Riley. We think this was probably meant to be Fort Zarah which was near present day Great Bend, KS. In another affidavit, he states that the frostbite occurred while marching from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Riley. After much thought concerning these two different statements, we think he may have left Fort Leavenworth with Fort Zarah being his destination. However, since Fort Zarah is approximately 125 miles southwest of Fort Riley he probably would have passed through Fort Riley. The unanswered question is why he does not appear on Fort Riley records until March 18, 1865? Could it be possible that even after suffering the frostbite, he continued on to Fort Zarah only to be returned to Fort Riley in March to the hospital? Affidavits from doctors in later years reveal that Patrick had no toenails on either foot as a result of the severe frostbite. On March 18, 1865, Patrick was reported as being sick at Fort Riley. On March 31, 1865, he returned to duty. April through October 1865, he was present on roll call at Fort Riley. On November 7, 1865, he mustered out as a private at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

Ft. Leavenworth, KS

At this point we do not know where his wife Agnes and the family were living. In the 1880 Lauderdale County, AL, census he is listed as living in Township 1, Range 12. This extends from near Threet north through the Johnson Crossroads area up to the state line and includes the May Branch area. According to his original pension file, dated August 14, 1882, Patrick states he has lived in the Cypress Inn area since being released from service. Further affidavits from his neighbors lead us to believe that he actually resided very near the state line in the area of present day May Branch Loop Road. Affidavits dated 1887-1891 from Thaddeus Montgomery, Eli Spain, Thomas J. Cypert, all state that he has lived near them for 20 to 25 years. Calculating the dates, Patrick and family probably moved into the area around 1867. Eli Spain states in one affidavit that he was in service with Patrick in January 1865 in Kansas when he suffered the frostbite. Records also show that Eli and Patrick were incarcerated together at Rock Island. They also signed oaths of allegiance seven days apart and served afterward in the same regiment. Both men were mustered out on November 7, 1865. While there is no way to know, it is possible or maybe even probable that Patrick and Eli traveled together from Fort Leavenworth to Wayne County. From 1865 until 1882 there is no other record of Patrick other than these affidavits. Land records have also been searched during this period with no success. The Thaddeus Montgomery and Eli Spain home place locations are known.

On August 14, 1882, Patrick made his first pension application due to disability or invalid, as it was known at that time. The pension application was approved on August 26, 1882, to begin at a rate of $4.00 per month.

Apparently, it was a requirement that every so often Patrick had to be examined by a doctor and send this in along with an affidavit from someone stating his health condition and area of residency. Information from doctor's examination reports that by this time his health was beginning to fail.

Patrick remained in the Cypress Inn area until 1886, when an affidavit states his address is District 1, Decatur County, Bath Springs, TN. He may have been possibly living with his brother James M. or his eldest son Thompson Christopher. In 1888, Patrick was living back in Cypress Inn. In 1893, his pension increased to $12.00 per month. In 1900, Patrick was living with his daughter, Elizabeth Blasingame near Lutts, TN. By this time, according to several doctor affidavits, Patrick is getting in extremely bad health, suffering from numerous ailments. His weight was reported as 122 pounds.

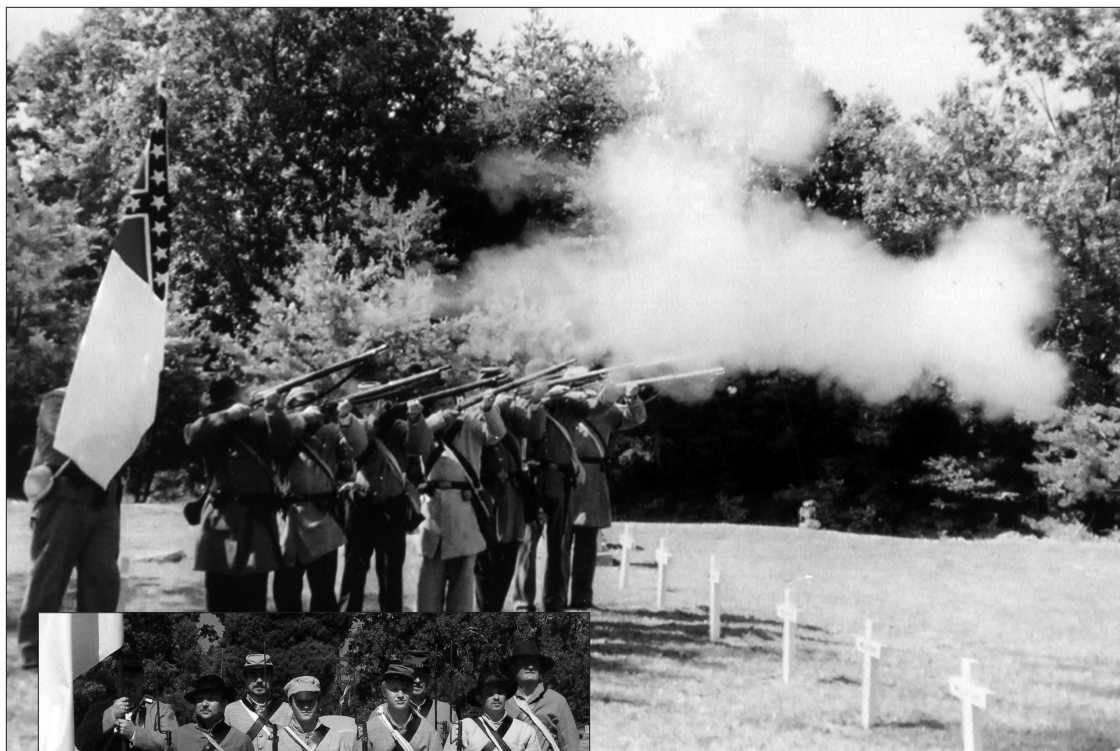

February, 1901, is where we find Patrick's first recorded land purchase. He purchased 100 acres from F.M. Foster for the amount of $65.00, cash in hand. We have spent numerous hours in the Wayne County Register's office trying to determine the exact location of this land without success. According to Wayne County deed books, it was located on Spout Springs Branch/Weatherford Creek, we believe to be in the Martin Mills area. However, taking into consideration Patrick's health at this time it is doubtful if he ever lived on this land. In 1907, Patrick sold this land to his youngest child, James Russell, who was living very near the area in Cypress Inn where he was probably born in 1869. It is also probably very likely that Patrick was living with James Russell at this time and continued to do so until his death one year later.

Patrick's last pension check, #692124, paid on May 4, 1908, was $12.00. He died on May 18, 1908, and is buried alongside Agnes, his wife of 52 years, at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Highway 227, Wayne County, TN. This final resting place we think is within two or three miles of where Patrick and Agnes lived a good part of their latter years.

Scotts Hill College Class of 1903

The Nashville Tennessean, June 28, 1953

50 Years Fail to Erase Memories Of Tiny College's 4-Man Graduation

By. Gordon H. Turner, Staff Correspondent

SCOTTS HILL, Tenn. - One June day 50 years ago, four men passed exams with flying colors, posed for pictures, and graduated that night in the "scientific course" of old Scotts Hill college here.

Their alma mater soon went the way of all the world and they were scattered to its four corners before death claimed one of the quartet. But several days ago the other three all in their 70s met here for an all-day reunion.

Not only that but they found the exact spot on the old deserted grown-up campus here they "had their pictures struck" in that long ago. Exactly a half century later, to a day, they posed for another photo in the same positions and with a vacant space for their deceased classmate.

The four "boys" were: Charles Smith Austin and E. E. Butler of this place (on the line between Henderson and Decatur counties); Perry M. Harbert of Morris Chapel (Hardin county), and John C. Graham who came 800 miles from Glory, Texas, just to enroll in the then-famous school. All had previously finished the school's "commercial" and "teachers" courses and the sheepskins earned in 1903 were the last and highest honors.

Actually B. A. Tucker, president of the little college, died just before their graduation and the "dignified seniors" took turns teaching his classes till the close of school when they separated to make high marks in their chosen fields.

Just Past 75

Oldest of the group is Harbert just passed 75, and for decades known to many as "Mr. Hardin county." He taught while working his way further through Cumberland university and for the past 40-odd years has practiced law in Savannah. He is a lover of the outdoors, and the nation has few better foresters. He has accumulated 22,000 acres, mostly of woodlands, and is an authority on wild life and natural resources conservation.

A lay leader of the Presbyterian church, he has taught a Bible class 40 years and represents his church at all national conferences. He is a Republican in politics and currently a member of the Tennessee constitutional convention. His wife is the former Martha Dugdale. They had no children.

.... Finds Its Old Spot Again

Fifty years later to the day, the three survivors of the class meet for a reunion on the long-abandoned campus. Butler, who became a grocer at Lexington, Tenn., died eight years ago. Austin, a retired school teacher of Nashville and Maury County; Harbert, a Savannah, Tenn., attorney, and Graham, also a retired teacher, of near Scotts Hill, strike pose of 50 years ago. Note growth of sycamore in background of both pictures.

Austin, second oldest of the three and an uncle of mine, taught school in a dozen towns in three states before retiring several years ago. He once headed two small-town colleges, and taught in Mt. Pleasant 30 years in a continuous stretch.

A Church of Christ preacher also for nearly 50 years, Austin has preached over 5500 sermons, all the way from Harvard university campus to California. Now a resident of Nashville, he commutes as full-time minister of the Main Street Church of Christ in Mt. Pleasant near where he also operates a near-model Maury county farm.

Planned to Celebrate

Planning to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next year, Austin married Minnie Starbuck of Perry county. Their children are: Larimore, of the Nashville-Davidson county planning commission and assistant minister of the Lawrence Ave. Church of Christ, and Miss Hazel, senior clerk in the state department of finance and taxation, both of Nashville, and Dr. Eugene, graduate of Harvard medical school, of Owosso, Mich.

Graham “baby” of the class, returned to Texas to teach after leaving here but came back to attend both Georgie Robertson Christian (now Freed-Hardeman) and David Lipscomb colleges, in Henderson and Nashville and to marry my sister, Myra, in 1909. They taught at Lockney (Texas) Bible college, and then in a half dozen high schools in Mississippi and West Tennessee before he turned to full-time preaching for the Church of Christ.

In the last 35 years he has served as minister in Sheffield, Ala.; Chattanooga, Jackson, Pulaski, Pittsburg (Pa.); Canton and Akron, Ohio; and Pensacola, Fla.

Graham Children

The Graham children are: Mrs. Troy Mitchell and Miss Myra Faye, teachers in the Akron, Ohio schools, and Dr. James F., a battalion surgeon during the Italian invasion, and now practicing in Dallas, Texas.

Butler, son of “Methodist Preacher Bill Butler” of this area, and next to Harbert in age died in 1945. He began as one of the first RFD’ers here in 1904. Later he ran a grocery here and in Bells (Crockett county) and in 1919 moved to nearby Lexington where he continued selling groceries till his death.

His widow (of Lexington) is the former Ida Davenport whose father (Isaac N.) was an exchanged Federal war prisoner who survived the sinking of the Sultana at Memphis, in which 155-odd men lost their lives.

The living Butler children are Mrs. Lloyd Montgomery and Woodrow of Lexington; Holmes, of Jackson; and Mrs. Willard Richardson, wife of a U. S. army colonel in Germany.

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES M.<sup>5</sup> BUTLER (CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS<sup>4</sup>, JAMES<sup>3</sup>, ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup>, CHRISTOPHER<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1813 in probably Elbert Co. GA, and died Bet. 1891 - 1900 in Decatur Co. TN. He married (1) SARAH CRAWFORD, daughter of JAMES CRAWFORD and ELIZABETH ?. She was born Abt. 1815 in South Carolina, and died Bet. 1852 - 1854 in Winston Co. MS. He married (2) AMANDA BISHOP August 01, 1854 in Coosa Co. AL (Source: Marriage License, Coosa Co. AL.). She was born September 1828 in Alabama, and died Bet. 1900 - 1910 in Decatur Co. TN.

Notes for JAMES M. BUTLER:

James M. "Jim" Butler was born about 1813 probably in Elbert Co. GA. He was the son of Christopher Columbus "Kit" Butler and Mahala Cole. Kit and Mahala moved their family to Shelby Co. AL about 1819 and a short distance to Coosa Co. AL in 1832. The first record that we have of Jim is the 1850 census in Winston Co. MS. Jim married Sarah Crawford about 1835 and they had seven known children. Jim and Sarah lived in Alabama until about 1847 when they moved to Winston Co. MS. Sarah died after their son, Billy, was born in 1852.

Following Sarah's death, Jim returned to Coosa Co. AL at least long enough to marry Amanda Bishop in 1854. Amanda was an orphan or a widow with a three year old daughter, George Anne, when she married Jim. Amanda is living in the Samuel Pruett household in the 1850 census in Coosa Co.

In 1857, Jim purchased a land patent in Walker Co. AL. Jim and Amanda and their combined family moved there and acquired an adjoining tract of land from John Cargile. They did not stay in Walker Co. very long. In 1861, they sold their total land holdings to Noah and Mary Ann Pariss and moved to northern Alabama. Their youngest twin children were born near Tuscumbia in 1862. Jim and Amanda had five known children in addition to Amanda's daughter, George Anne.

By 1870, the family had made its way to Decatur Co. TN. Family tradition is that they were on their way west to Arkansas and stopped along the way in Decatur Co. and decided to stay. Thomas, John, James and Billy, sons from Jim's first marriage to Sarah Crawford, made the trip to Decatur County along with Jim and Amanda's five children. Jim and Sarah's sons, John and James showed up later in Arkansas so they may have continued the trip after the rest of the family stopped in Decatur Co.

Jim and Mandy and their sons farmed near Point Pleasant, TN but did not own any land. They seem to go from cotton crop to cotton crop with several liens showing up through the 1870's and 1880's in Decatur Co. TN. Their son, Columbus, was the first Butler land owner with a deed recorded in 1883. They seem to live a difficult life with Jim borrowing money in 1887 at age 74 with his gray horse and cotton crop as collateral. Jim died some time in the 1890's.

Mandy combined households with her youngest daughter, Virgie after Jim's death and the death of Virgie's husband. They were living in Henderson Co. TN near Scotts Hill in the 1900 census. Mandy died before 1910.

Winston Co. MS was formed from Choctaw Cession in 1833.

Coosa County AL was created in 1832 from lands ceded in the Creek Indian Treaty of Cusseta and from parts of Montgomery County. It is named for the Coosa River which forms the county's western boundary. The county seat is Rockford. During the 1870 and 1880's groups from Coosa County and other parts of Alabama settled in the Cleburne County Arkansas area. Stories in the Butler family indicate that the James Butler family was traveling to Arkansas when they decided to settle in Decatur County, Tennessee.

History of Walker County, Its Towns and Its Peoples, John Martin Dombhart, published 1937, Cayce Publishing Company, Thornton, Arkansas

"In 1855 a new Federal land law was enacted which made government lands available at twelve and a half cents per acre. This law caused another great migration into Walker, and almost as many settlers came into the county in 1855 as came in during the flush times of 1836."

In 1845, citizens of the portion of Perry County which lay on the west side of the Tennessee River petitioned for a new county. An act of the General Assembly in November, 1845, created Decatur County. It included all the parts of Perry County which were located on the west side of the Tennessee River. This new county was named for Commodore Stephen Decatur who had served in the United States Navy with distinction during the War of 1812.

2. THOMAS A.<sup>6</sup> BUTLER (JAMES M.<sup>5</sup>, CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS<sup>4</sup>, JAMES<sup>3</sup>, ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup>, CHRISTOPHER<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1837 in Alabama, and died Bet. 1880 - 1900. He married (1) FRANCES A. DUKE July 28, 1859 in Tuscaloosa Co. AL (Source: Marriage License, Tuscaloosa Co. AL.), daughter of WILLIAM DUKE and DELILA DUKE. She was born Abt. 1841 in Georgia. He married (2) CLEMENTINE WALLACE. She was born August 1856 in Tennessee.

Notes for THOMAS A. BUTLER:

Thomas A. Butler was born around 1837 in Alabama as the oldest child of James M. Butler and Sarah Crawford. He moved to Winston Co. MS around 1847 along with the James M. Butler family. He lived in Winston Co. MS at least until 1855 when he purchased a rawhide for 10 cents at the estate sale of his uncle, Peter Crawford.

In 1859, Thomas married Frances A. Duke in Tuscaloosa Co. AL, July 28, 1859. A family tradition within his brother Jimmy's family is that three Butler brothers married three sisters. Research shows that John Wesley Butler married Nancie Ann Duke and Sarah Emily Butler married Isaac Alfred Duke so there were at least three marriages between the Butler and Duke families.

Apparently, Thomas and his family traveled along with the James M. Butler family north into Lauderdale Co. AL and eventually to Decatur Co. TN. Thomas spent some time in Lawrence Co. TN before showing up in the 1880 census in Decatur Co. TN with his second wife, Clementine Wallace and his seven children. Sometime prior to 1900, Thomas and Clementine moved their family back to Lauderdale Co. where Thomas died. Clementine remarried and some of the children completed the trip to Arkansas and Missouri.

3. JOHN WESLEY<sup>6</sup> BUTLER (JAMES M.<sup>5</sup>, CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS<sup>4</sup>, JAMES<sup>3</sup>, ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup>, CHRISTOPHER<sup>1</sup>) was born September 03, 1840 in Alabama, and died August 13, 1916 in Paragould, Greene Co. AR. He married NANCIE ANN DUKE June 05, 1860 in Tuscaloosa Co. AL, daughter of WILLIAM DUKE and DELILA DUKE. She was born July 09, 1843 in Alabama, and died January 03, 1905 in Paragould, Greene Co. AR.

Notes for JOHN WESLEY BUTLER:

John Wesley Butler was born in 1840 in Alabama as the second child of James M. Butler and Sarah Crawford. He moved to Winston Co. MS around 1847 along with the James M. Butler family. John's Mother died after his brother, William was born in 1852. In 1857, John moved with his father and step-mother Amanda Bishop to Walker Co. AL.

In 1860, he moved to Tuscaloosa, Alabama and established a household with his new bride, Nancy Ann Dukes. John and Nancy had nine surviving children: Mary Jane, Nancy Andelite, John Wesley Jr., James Emmitt, Andrew W., Sara E., Jasper Henry, Ader and Tinnie.

John Wesley and Nancy made their way with their family north through Alabama into Tennessee. They lived for a while in Decatur Co. TN and Obion Co. TN and settled in Stoddard Co. MO before 1880. They, most likely, traveled this route with other family members who were making the journey from Alabama through Tennessee to southeast Missouri/northeast Arkansas. They moved to Paragould, AR some time in the 1880s. While John and Nancy stayed in Paragould, Emmitt, Andrew and Jasper moved to St. Louis, MO with the remainder of their adult children moving to southeast Missouri.

While John probably farmed at times, it cannot be determined exactly what his occupation was during his lifetime. The later generations felt he must have been a storekeeper or other such clerical job.

John and Nancy lived their remaining years in Paragould. Nancy died in 1906 and John died in 1916. They are buried in Wood's Chapel Cemetery in Greene Co. AR.

The descendants of this pioneering family are proud of the tenacity and fortitude they showed in traveling by covered wagon to forge westward and explore new country.

Notes for JAMES MADISON BUTLER:

James M. Butler was born in 1846 in Alabama as the fourth child of James M. Butler and Sarah Crawford. He moved to Winston Co. MS a short time later (around 1847) along with the James M. Butler family. Jimmy's Mother died after his brother, William was born in 1852. In 1857, Jimmy moved with his father and step-mother Amanda Bishop to Walker Co. AL to live on a land patent purchased by his father. In 1861, Jimmy moved with the family to northern Alabama.

About 1867, Jimmy married Sarah Elizabeth Handley in Alabama and moved to Decatur Co. TN. They were living in Madison Co. TN by 1880. They continued the family journey to Arkansas and were living in Clay Co. AR by 1900. There seems to have been some contact between the Arkansas and Tennessee branches of the Butler family during this time. Family tradition is that Jimmy had a brother Billy who was a Methodist minister in Tennessee.

Jimmy and Sarah had eight children. The oldest, Noah Athleen was born in Scotts Hill, TN. Moses was born in Alabama with the other seven being born in Tennessee. Their children were Noah Athleen, Moses, Austin, James Asbury, Marion, Crawford C., John W., Alabama. All survived to adulthood except for John W. and Alabama.

Jimmy and Sarah both died before 1907 near St. Francis and are buried in the Gravel Hill Cemetery in Clay Co. AR.

Notes for SARAH EMILY BUTLER:

Sarah Emily Butler was born about 1849 in Winston Co. MS as the fifth child of James M. Butler and Sarah Crawford. Sarah's Mother died after her brother, William was born in 1852. In 1857, Sarah moved with her father and step-mother Amanda Bishop to Walker Co. AL to live on a land patent purchased by her father. Sarah moved with the family to northern Alabama in 1861.

Sarah married Isaac Alfred Duke in 1868 in Lauderdale Co. AL. During the 1870's, I. A. and Sarah Duke lived in Texas with three of their children being born there. According to family tradition, William J. Duke, I. A.'s Father, had a hunting accident and died in southeast MO. I. A.'s Mother, Delila, who evidently controlled the finances, said she was going no farther on their journey to participate in a land lottery in Texas. Isaac decided to return to be with the rest of the clan in Missouri. By the 1880 census, I. A. and Sarah Duke were living in Stoddard Co. MO.

Isaac Alfred and Sarah Emily Duke had six children: Elizabeth, W. J., Ida L., Matilda, Georgia Ann, Chas. Barham. Only Matilda and Georgia Ann are known to have survived to adulthood.

Notes for WILLIAM WARD BUTLER:

William Ward Butler was born in 1852 in Winston Co. MS as the seventh child of James M. Butler and Sarah Crawford. Billy's Mother died shortly after his birth. In 1857, Billy moved with his father and step-mother Amanda Bishop to Walker Co. AL to live on a land patent purchased by her father. In 1861, Billy moved with the family to northern Alabama. By 1870, Billy had moved to Decatur Co. TN along with his parents and several siblings.

Billy married Martha Stanfill in Decatur Co. TN in 1877. They had one surviving son, Elbert Eldest Butler and a daughter Alice who died shortly after birth and is buried at the Sardis Cemetery. E. E. Butler finished a scientific course at Scotts Hill College, and was one of the first rural mail carriers in Scotts Hill, TN. He later entered the grocery business in Lexington, TN and continued in this business for 25 years.

Martha died shortly after Alice's birth in 1880 and is probably buried at the Sardis Cemetery in Henderson Co. TN. Billy married the orphan, Eliza Julita Edwards in 1882 in Decatur Co. TN. Billy and Eliza had eleven children - Sallie, William Festus, Mary Louise, Nora, Joseph Lewis, Robert L., John T., George Washington, James Ernest, Charles Paul and Thelma Inez. Sallie, Nora and James died young and are buried at the Scotts Hill Methodist Cemetery in Scotts Hill, Tennessee.

Billy was a farmer and lay preacher/evangelist in the Scotts Hill area starting in the 1870's. He preached at the early Scotts Hill Methodist Church. He was admitted to the Lexington District of the Memphis Conference on trial in 1889 and discontinued from trial in 1891. He remained a lay preacher associated with the Scotts Hill mission and performed several marriages in Decatur Co. between 1890 and 1907.

By 1910, Billy and Eliza had moved their family to Crockett Co. where Billy continued to work as a farmer and serve as a lay preacher for the Methodist Church. Their daughter Thelma died at age five in Crockett Co. in 1911 and was returned by a horse drawn hearse to be buried at the Scotts Hill Methodist Cemetery in Decatur Co. TN.

From 1911 to 1914, Billy was assigned to the Gadsden Circuit of the Brownsville District of the Methodist Church. From 1915 to 1924, he was assigned to the Alamo Circuit of the Brownsville District.

Billy had a sad ending to his life. Billy's son, John T., ended his life and two others in a tragic murder-suicide in 1924. Billy died within two weeks of this tragic episode and is buried at the Belleview Cemetery in Crockett Co. TN.

Billy's many descendants include teachers, merchants, public servants and a variety of business people who were all productive and successful members of society.

From The History of Scotts Hill, Tennessee, Gordon H. Turner, Sr., (Carter Printing Company, Southaven, Mississippi, 1977):

Descendants of James M. Butler

Methodists erected a meeting house and began worship across the road from present Bethel Cemetery. It was called the Bethel Methodist Church and whether the church or the cemetery came first may never be known. The church dates from about 1843.

The Bethel Methodist church was well organized and growing before the Civil War. After the war, more and more people were moving into the little town proper. About 1885 Bethel Methodists erected a frame meeting house on the site of the present building donated by Edd Austin and the congregation moved to meet and worship there.

Other early Methodist membership names -- individuals or families -- before and since 1900, included: Tom and George Smith, Nat Huggins, Dr. W. B. Keeton, the Bagbys, Brights, Davidsons, Austins, McCollums, Waltons, Whites, Butlers and others.

In 1943-44 a pretty concrete block building replaced the worn and leaning frame house. The Pastor, John P. Murphy, worked mightily also with his hands, assisted much by Dee McCollum, Jim S. Walton and others. Other well-known preachers and leaders through the years were: Billy Butler, O. H. Lafferty, and the Treadwells, Flatts, Gilliams, etc.

Funeral of Rev. W. W. Butler

Interment in Belleview Cemetery

In our last week's issue a brief announcement appeared of the death of Rev. W. W. Butler, which occurred at his home near Cypress church, where he had resided for the past seventeen years. He moved from Scott's Hill, Henderson County, to the place where he succumbed, after a long and useful life. He was a faithful, earnest and successful Minister of the Southern Methodist church for near fifty years. He is survived by a lonely companion, six sons and one daughter. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Bells, Friday morning, June 20th, by his pastor, Rev. E. L. Robinson, assisted by Rev. C. C. Newbill and J. C. W. Nunn. Brief tributes of respect and love were also paid by Esq. F. M. Goldsmith, a long co-laborer and close friend, and Revs. Bryant, Hope and Maxedon, pastors of the Presbyterian, Christian and Methodist churches, respectively, of Humboldt. But few funeral services so impressive, so full of deep sympathy, have been held in this place for the past twenty-five years. After the services at the church, his body was taken in charge by his Masonic brethren of the Alamo Lodge, assisted by members from Bells and Humboldt, and impressive burial services conducted at the grave. Rare, numerous, beautiful and fragrant floral offerings covered the grave, underneath resting the body of a loyal, true soldier of the Cross. May the Good Spirit be your constant help in this time of deep sorrow, is the united prayer of hosts of friends, bereaved companion, children, grand-children and other near relatives of this departed servant of God.

Christopher Columbus Butler was born 1855 in Alabama as the first child of James M. Butler and Amanda Bishop. In 1857, Columbus moved with his father and mother to Walker Co. AL to live on a land patent purchased by his father. In 1861, Columbus moved with the family to northern Alabama. By 1870, Columbus had moved to Decatur Co. In 1875, Columbus married Sarah A. Turnbo in Decatur Co. TN. They had two children - Mary T. and Edgar Edd. Mary died young; Ed survived to adulthood.

In 1883, Columbus purchased the first land owned by the Butler family in Decatur County. The land was purchased from W. H. Bogan from the estate sale of J. D. Reynals based on a judgment against James K. Martin. This land contains the current Butler Cemetery in Decatur Co. TN.

Also in 1883, Columbus married Mary E. Edwards. Columbus and Mary had five children, Ella, Flora, Alva, Amanda Caroline, and Nora Mae Butler. All survived to adulthood and married. Mary died in 1894 and is buried in the Butler Cemetery in Decatur Co. TN.

Columbus married a third time in Henderson Co. in 1897 with his marriage to Lottie Fagg. Columbus and Lottie had one son, David Benjamin. Ben was a World War II veteran and was present at the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Columbus was somewhat of a land trader and owned various pieces of land in the local area. Lottie died in 1917 and Columbus died in 1920. They are both buried in the Butler Cemetery on the land that Columbus purchased in 1883.

From Gordon H. Turner, Sr., The History of Scotts Hill, Tennessee (Carter Printing Company, Southaven, Mississippi, 1977).

In the early 1890's, Prof. Benard A. Tucker built a nice frame building in which he lived and "took in boarders" for the college which he founded. This historic old place is now owned by Mrs. Ozie Creasy and is occupied by Mrs. Beulab Austin and her sons, Seaman and Eugene. Gay-90's homes were erected near the Tucker house by the Will Stubblefields, Ben McClanahans, P. H. Stephens, and Nat Huggins families. Our Mack Wicker recently built his home on the site of the Stubblefield place which had been occupied, after the Stubblefields left here, by the Columbus Butler, A. O. Magers, and Otis Clenney families.

In the 1880 census, the Christopher Columbus Butler family is recorded twice. On June 19, 1880, they are living next door to his apparent brother Thomas A. Butler in dwelling 206. On June 29, 1880, they are living next door to his father, James M. Butler in dwelling 304. Either the family moved and was recorded twice or it is a recording error by the census taker.

In the 1920 Decatur County TN census, Columbus Butler is living in the John H. Moore household.

TN (Source: Fred and Margie Alexander, Early Marriage Records (1869-1921) of Decatur County, Tennessee, page 14, Thos Hay, M. G.), daughter of JOHN IVEY and MARY ORR. She was born September 20, 1867 in Tennessee, and died May 03, 1947 in Bonnie Keeton home, Decatur Co. TN (Source: Headstone, Ivey Cemetery, "1867- ,Mother.").

Notes for AUSTIN MANSFIELD BUTLER:

Austin Butler was born in Walker Co. AL in 1858. He was born on land acquired through a land patent purchased by his father, James M. Butler. The family lived in Walker County a short time before moving on in 1861 to northern Alabama. Austin's youngest sister Virgie was born near Tuscumbia in 1862.

By 1870, the family had made its way to Decatur Co. TN. Austin's step sister, George Anna Bishop was married in Decatur County in 1871. Family tradition is that the family was on its way west to Arkansas and stopped along the way in Decatur County and decided to stay. In 1876, Austin, along with his brothers Columbus and Patrick, borrow money from Davy, Torbit & Co. of Point Pleasant to finance their cotton crop on rented land in Decatur County. Austin's oldest half brother, Thomas, is found living in Decatur County in the 1880 census. Austin's half brother, John Wesley and half sister, Sarah Emily, are found in southeast Missouri in 1880. Austin's half brother, James M. is found in Madison Co. TN in 1880. John, Sarah and James all later move to northeast Arkansas.

In 1883, Austin married Millie Alice Ivey, daughter of John Jasper Ivey and Mary Ellender Orr. The Ivey and Orr families were well established in Decatur County when the Butler family arrived around 1870. Austin and Millie did not own any land but were farmers in Decatur County and worked hard to provide for their 10 surviving children. The family lived at several different places in Decatur County. In the early 1900's, they lived on the Ed Renfroe Road near the Mt. Nebo Methodist Church. Austin worked for a while as a "mule skinner" at a mule powered cotton gin that was located near the Red House Inn and owned by W. H. Martin. Austin had the reputation of being able to tame any hard to handle mule by working them on the cotton gin. Local farmers would bring their mules to Austin for encouragement of a more productive disposition. In 1908, a large hail storm struck the area, destroying the roof of the Mt. Nebo Church. Family tradition has it that several roosting chickens were killed in the trees by this hail storm at the nearby Butler home.

Later, the family lived at the Lacy place near Campground Church and off Pritchard Lane between Utah Community and Decaturville. Pritchard Lane was flooded when Kentucky Lake was constructed on the Tennessee River. Austin died in 1918 at home off Pritchard Lane. Local newspapers record the winter of 1917-1918 as one of the coldest and having one of the heaviest snow falls of record. After his death, the family carried his body by mule and wagon to the Ivey Cemetery for burial. This was a long day's journey on the poor roads at that time. Alice continued to live in Decatur County until 1947 when she died leaving a legacy of 31 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. Alice is buried beside Austin at the Ivey Cemetery.

Notes for NICHOLAS ROWAN MARR:

NICHOLAS ROWAN MARR

Nicholas Rowan Marr, son of N. L. and Sarah A. Marr, nee Perkins, was born June 25, 1850, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, but brought up in Franklin, Tenn. He professed religion in boyhood, and joined the Presbyterian Church with his mother. Later in life he was impressed with the duty of preaching the gospel, but feeling that he could not conscientiously teach the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with whose doctrines, government, and usages he was fully satisfied.

In 1885 he joined the Memphis Conference, and in due time was received into full connection and ordained deacon and elder.

Brother Marr was married three times. First, to Miss Mattie Busby, of Texas; next, to Miss Alice Gillespie, of West Tennessee, and finally, to Miss Virginia Butler, of Decatur County, Tenn. She and five children are left to mourn his loss.

The life of our dear, departed brother was characterized by self-denial, self-sacrifice, moral courage and fidelity. He was faithful until death, and would have been faithful unto death. The crowning grace of his character was humility. In honor he preferred others to himself. He was "clothed with humility." Like his Lord, he was "meek and lowly in heart."

As a minister of grace to guilty men, Brother Marr "studied to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed." Industrious, studious and well educated, he made rapid progress in the attainment of sacred and divine knowledge. He was a good theologian, well read in the history of the Christian Church, and especially in the history of Methodism. He preached the gospel in its purity, and with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven. God gave him success in winning souls to Christ. At the fourth Quarterly Conference, on his last circuit, he reported seventy-one conversions during the quarter.

His zeal was a flaming fire that burned continually. I met him a few weeks before his death, and noticed that he was looking worn and weary. On inquiry I learned that, in addition to his other labors, he had just preached twenty-two sermons in eight days. As the sainted Summerfield once said, he was the "slave" of Jesus and the "slave" of his people.

He fell at his post in Hollow Rock, Tenn., on Friday night, November 8, 1895. Thank God, he died in the faith and in the sweet hope of heaven. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

Descendants of James M. Butler

It is unclear if Noah was legally married to his niece Flora Butler but they were "run out of Missouri" for living together. They traveled in a covered wagon to an Indian Reservation near Fort Sill, Oklahoma, around 1912. They stayed there a year or two and then started back toward Senath, Dunklin Co. MO. On the way back from Oklahoma, Flora disappeared. Everyone thought Noah had killed Flora and their child. It was learned years later that she had run away from Noah taking the baby with her.

Flora was later located in Springfield, Missouri along with her child. She was working at the bus station in Springfield, Missouri. Flora and the child disappeared and were never heard from again.

During the time Noah and Flora were gone, many family members in Arkansas and Missouri were angry and often discussed hunting Noah down and dealing out their own brand of "Bootheel Justice".

Noah died in Senath, Missouri shortly after returning alone from the Indian Reservation.

Notes for MARY ELIZABETH KEY:

"Henderson County Tennessee, A Pictorial History" by Brenda Kirk Fiddler, copyright 1996

Mary Elizabeth Key Butler came to Lexington in the fall of 1938 to serve as Home Demonstration Agent. In 1945 she married Woodrow Butler and continued to work as home agent until 1948. From 1948 until 1955 she taught sixth grade at the Lexington City School. In 1955 she returned to home demonstration work and remained in that position until her retirement in 1975.

Some of Mrs. Butler's responsibilities included helping, rural homemakers learn the "arts" of homemaking. One of her more interesting projects during 1941 and 1942 was that of helping families make their own mattresses out of compacted cotton and ticking supplied by the government. More than 4,000 mattresses were made in those two years. Each family got 50 pounds of compressed cotton and enough ticking for a full sized mattress. After the ticking was sewn, the cotton was put inside and beaten with a broom to be fluffed and distributed. It was then necessary to take a long sharp needle and tuft the cotton to the mattress. During this process injuries could occur. Sometimes the families had not "beaten" the cotton enough to break up the hard clumps, and these clumps could cause the needle to turn as it went upward through the mattress. That turned needle came through the top of the mattress into Mrs. Butler's hand hard enough and frequently enough to draw blood.

In 1959 Mrs. Butler traveled to New Orleans, LA, to receive an award for her work with rural families.

27. JOHN T.<sup>7</sup> BUTLER (WILLIAM WARD<sup>6</sup>, JAMES M.<sup>5</sup>, CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS<sup>4</sup>, JAMES<sup>3</sup>, ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup>, CHRISTOPHER<sup>1</sup>) was born December 25, 1894 in Scotts Hill, Decatur Co. TN, and died June 06, 1924 in Bells, Crockett Co. TN. He married HAZEL PERMENTER September 17, 1919 in Crockett Co. TN (Source: Crockett County, TN - Marriages, Copyright 2000 by Natalie Huntley(nhuntley@aol.com)), daughter of SIDNEY PERMENTER and EMMA ?. She was born 1901, and died June 05, 1924 in Bells, Crockett Co. TN (Source: Headstone.).

Notes for JOHN T. BUTLER:

Notes from conversation with Mrs. Alton Edwards, April 23, 2000

Mrs. Alton Edwards is 93 years old and living in a nursing home. She remembers the Butler's of Cypress Church well. She and her husband lived in the Butler home place. They tore down the original house and built a new one.

Mrs. Edwards attended Lambuth College and was a school teacher for 40+ years.

She was witness to John Butler shooting Jim Ballentine. Jim was working with Mrs. Edwards father cutting timber. John Butler thought his wife Hazel Permenter was seeing Jim Ballentine since they used to be sweet hearts. Mrs. Edwards saw John Butler shoot Jim Ballentine while Jim was plowing. He also shot Hazel Permenter and himself.

The preacher William Butler was very sick at the time and died within 24 hours before or after the shooting. She does not know where John or William are buried but guess that it is at Scotts Hill.

After John's and Hazel's death, John Paul was raised by his widow Aunt Mary and his uncle Bob who lived together. She thinks that Bob and Mary moved to Quincy, TN between Alamo and Trenton.

John Paul was in the army and started collecting coins. He later donated his extensive coin collection to the College of the Ozarks. The college educated his daughter for free because of this. He was also the curator of the collection.

Mrs. Edwards had a Butler friend who was a sister to John Butler. She died when only 5 - 6 years old. She was born in 1906 like Mrs. Edwards. She was taken by horse drawn hearse to Scotts Hill for burial.

Festus Butler operated a store in Bells and taught at Emison School. Mrs. Edwards started school at 4 years old under Festus as a teacher. He had a son named Charles who taught school at Friendship.

George Butler and Hesco Cook had three daughters who were school teachers.

In the 1920 census, John and Hazel Butler are living in the William W. Butler household. Jim Ballentine is living in his father's house nearby. According to my sources, Jim Ballentine is the person shot by John Butler not John Ballentine as reported in the news reports.

**SAD TRAGEDY ENACTED NEAR BELLS****

News reached Humboldt this morning that John BUTLER, of near Bells, brother of Joe BUTLER, of Humboldt, had in a fit of insane jealousy probably, shot and killed his wife and a neighbor named Ballentine, and then turned the gun on himself, inflicting probably fatal wound. From the best information to be had this morning, BUTLER, who is about 30 years of age and a veteran of the World War, had shot his wife and then walked into a field in front of his place, shot and killed a neighbor named BALLANCE, who was plowing there. He then walked back to his house and shot himself. The load passed near Butler's heart and he is not expected to live. Mr. & Mrs. BUTLER had one little child. It is said that Butler, who served as a soldier in France and was both gassed and wounded in battle, had not been normal since he returned home.

THIRD VICTIM DIES IN BELLS SHOOTING

John Butler Shot Self After Killing Two-Succumbs

Bells, Tues. June 6, - John Butler who yesterday shot to death his wife and John Ballentine, a neighbor, and then turned the gun on himself, died here this evening. Butler shot himself in the chest with a shotgun.

Butler, a World War veteran, was wounded in the head in France and was said to have suffered mental aberrations. It is believed this was the cause of his act, as there had been no domestic difficulties in his home, neighbors said.

Opening fire on his wife with a shotgun yesterday morning, Butler killed her instantly in their home, then walked a short distance to a field where Ballentine was working and shot him dead. He retraced his steps to his back yard and there placed the muzzle of the gun against his breast and exploded it.

Two of the largest crowds ever assembled attended the funeral of Ballentine this afternoon for Mrs. Butler from the same church. J. C. W. Nunn officiating at the service.

Notes for WILLIAM C. CULP:

Neely Culp was the grandfather of Willie Culp:

Civil War Story (source: Kenneth Culp)

Story of William Neely Culp or "Neely" or "W.N. Culp" b 1825 - d 1863? and his wife Julia Emory (1831-1914). See end of story for children of Neely and Julia and verification of parts of story. We do not know for certain but speculate that Timothy Culp is Neely's father.

Family stories have him at Culp's chapel in Perry County, Tenn [which is still there as I visited this place and have a picture of it]. I don't know if he was married then, but the story starts with him going to California for the Gold Rush (Circa 1849-1850) and returning to Tennessee with considerable wealth, enough to afford as many as 100 negro slaves [note: the records I saw never showed more than 7 slaves, but the ruins of his plantation house do indicate wealth]. It is said he worked his slaves in the farm fields during the day and had them chip native rock for building purposes at night. He constructed a large underground cellar, three chimneys, cistern, well and rock fences for his house and farm. The house was a large double log, two story home built on the "Dog Trot" log style of the day [owned by the town doctor Dr. Brooks in 1930's when it burned down]. The cistern was on the back porch or an extension which connected the dining-kitchen rooms to the main structure.

Neely Culp was said to be a "master carpenter" and included new or innovative features in his home and other area structures he helped build. Being a slave owner and a Southern sympathizer, he chose NOT to fight in the Civil War and by necessity had to hide out during the civil war from the soldiers (Union?) and local renegades [my grandpa Burren Culp remembers his dad (Joseph, son of Neeley) saying he was on the "home guard"]. Allegedly, his gold was hidden about the property. Beliefs as to his wealth apparently led to his murder by a local gang. An earlier story by Granny Culp [later Emily E. Kelley] had him hiding above the stairs during one raid by bushwhackers and fatally shooting one of the marauders from the stairwell [I remember my grandpa saying this too, "shot in the head"]. A negro house woman was told to drag the body across the orchard to the garden and cover it with one of grandma Culp's good quilts. The dead man's family later moved the body by wagon.

Another story related the passing soldiers taking good quilts for horse saddle blankets. On occasions grandma and the children would hide out in the graveyard to avoid marauders.

One account of Neely Culp's death had him cold, wet and tired from hiding and coming home to get food, supplies, and rest. He was lying in front of the fire when sounds of horse hoofs of several riders were heard approaching the house. Apparently too much for those present, the gang overpowered the Culp family and rode off with Neely tied to his own horse. The story goes that the gang killed him in efforts to make him tell where his gold was hidden. The gang dumped and hid his body across the Tennessee River in the old community area. Disposition of the body was communicated many years later to a family member of the guilty gang. Culp's body was never recovered or found.

Descendants of James M. Butler

Old omens of the day - Granny Culp felt she knew he was dead when a flock of buzzards descended near the house, requiring her to fight them off with a broom [this notion was confirmed by my great Aunt Artie of Memphis, Tenn who was a spouse to Riley Culp, Joseph's son. Tales have it that some gold was later found, but through many years rumors persist that gold still remains buried on the home place. It was said that Neely Culp gave the land for the cemetery and church building and possibly helped build the church structure. The present building does look over 125 years old [there are some heavy quarry blocks in the foundation which I photographed in 1983]. Ernest Pevahouse was the custodian of the chapel in 1978 [per Charles H. Yabro] and remembers staying the night in the old Culp house. Pevahouse reports that Dr. Brooks built a doctor's office between the road and the house. Also in existence, but rotting away, is a log smokehouse near the house, believed to be a Neely structure [I saw this in 1983]. To the west and slightly near the rear of the house, past an old orchard, is an almost perfectly preserved portion of a rock wall and a square rock well.

The Neely Culp information is available in the U.S. Census for 1860, Wayne County, Tenn and there was also a Schedule of Slaves. Interview also (by Charles H. Yabro] from Mrs. Lillian Thompson Vise of Decaturville, TN on December 27, 1971 when she was 96 years old, she died May 16, 1972. Parts verified by Burren Culp (of Scott's Hill TN), my grandfather who died in 1976, and also by an interview with Artie Culp of Memphis, TN (Burren's brother Riley Culp's spouse). My address is: Dr. Kenneth Culp, 170 Ironwood Circle, Iowa City, IA 52240-4474. I also found old Grandma Culp (Julia grave (Neeley's wife) in the Scotts Hill, Tenn cemetery under Julia E. Kelley. Her date of death was Sept 19, 1914 and the stone says "aged 83 years, 3 months, and 7 days".

I would welcome any comments or further verification of this account from those interested!

Notes for WILLIAM CARL BUTLER:

Carl Butler was born on Ed Renfroe Road near the Mt. Nebo Methodist Church in Bath Springs, Tennessee. Carl was a small child and when the family moved to a new home, Carl traveled in a floor barrel on the moving wagon.

Around 1918, there was a serious flu epidemic in Decatur County. It was said that "there weren't enough well people to care for the sick or to bury the dead." During this time, Carl came down with the flu and was in a coma for 6-8 weeks. This, no doubt, impacted Carl's health in later years as he suffered from asthma throughout his life.

Carl married Edna Welch in 1923 and moved to the Lynn Welch place to set up housekeeping. Carl and Edna worked there as sharecroppers and their three children were born there. It was a challenging time for the family. During the winter months, Edna would split open the cotton sacks and place them on the floor as a rug to block some of the cold air coming through the cracks in the floor.

The family moved to several different locations in Decatur Co. and continued to work as sharecroppers - Richard Blount place, Tom Lacy place, Frank Dees farm, Frog Pond place, Arnold Broadway place. It was difficult to make a living as a sharecropper with the normal share being 1/3 of the corn, 1/4 of the cotton and 1/2 of the hay going to the sharecropper.

They moved back to the Lynn Welch place before Carl bought and sold land in the Largo Community from his Mother's estate. He sold the land to his brother in law Bonnie Keeton and bought a farm in the Davis Community that later became know as the "Locked House." Carl's grandchildren gave it this name because it sat empty for many years before falling in from disrepair.

Carl and his son Charles tried to make a living farming on the new land in the Davis Community but the boll weevil took its toll and they soon went broke. Charles followed his brother in law, Rogers Moore to Jackson, Tennessee to work at the Agricultural Experiment Farm. In the early 1950's, Carl and Edna moved to Jackson along with the family of their son Charles. They were paid a minimal wage for working at the Experiment Station plus a share in the produce of the farm.

Carl and Edna continued to live in the home of their son, Charles, and moved to Chester Street in Jackson and later to Bemis.

Uncle Lynn Welch place - David Welch sold approx. 25-30 acres to the "Coalings Company" for use in charcoal production. Timber was cut in approximate 4' lengths and stacked in large piles for burning or smoldering into charcoal. The charcoal was then hauled by wagon to Brownsport Furnace to fire the furnace for iron smelting. Iron ore dug out of area hills was hauled to the furnace area. During this time, 12-15 houses were built at Brownsport for workers. Years later, when Carl Butler, Sr.'s family was sharecroppers at what is near the present J. G. Brasher home, some of the fields there had places where the plowed ground showed evidence of the charcoal burning operations--- dark black soil.

Castor Township, Stoddard Co. MO, and died February 20, 1911 in Swinton, Stoddard Co. MO. She met (1) JOHN ALBERT CATES, son of RUFUS CATES and SUSAN ?. He was born May 17, 1885 in Pike Township, Stoddard Co. MO. She married (2) ELMORE A. NUNN May 06, 1908 in Stoddard Co. MO, son of ? NUNN and LUCINDA ?. He was born October 1881 in Kentucky, and died 1952.

Notes for VIOLA ANN KEATING:

Viola was born in September of 1884 in Missouri. She was the oldest daughter of Robert and Nancy (Butler) Keating. She had a brother, Oly, and a sister, Ada.

Viola (unmarried at the time) became pregnant with her son, Dallas Robert Keating, approximately around July 8, 1905. As the story goes, she became pregnant by Albert Cates. Albert was a bit of a "rounder", and he also got another girl, Ida Bush, pregnant around the same time. He had to make a decision of which girl to marry, and he chose Ida, leaving Viola to go thru her pregnancy and have her baby on her own, without a husband. That's the story that's been passed down thru the family all these years. However, after doing some research at the library, I found out that this can't be true. Albert and Ida were married on January 8, 1905, in Stoddard County, MO. This means that they had already been married about 6 months at the time that he got Viola pregnant. So obviously he didn't have to decide who to marry, because he was already married. I guess he chose to stay with Ida and not Viola. It has also been told in the family that years later, when Dallas was a young man, he went looking for Albert, saying that he was going to kill him for what he put Viola through, but he didn't find him.

Anyway, Viola gave birth to Dallas Robert Keating on April 8, 1906. A couple of years later, on May 6, 1908, Viola married a man named Elmore Nunn. They were married in Viola's home. Both were of age at the time and of Stoddard County, MO. The ceremony was performed by I. J. Cates, MG (a relative of Albert's). Viola was Elmore's second wife.

Viola passed away on February 20, 1911. I found the following article in the Bloomfield Vindicator newspaper, dated Friday, March 3, 1911 (page 7):

"Mrs. Viola Nunn, daughter of Mrs. William Henderson, died of consumption on February 20, aged 25 years. The deceased leaves a husband, two small children, a mother, one brother and one sister and a host of friends to mourn her loss."

Well, this is a mystery to me. I only know of Viola having one child, Dallas. The 1910 census lists their family as consisting of: Elmore, his mother Lucinda, Viola, and Dallas. It says that Viola had 2 children, one still living. So she must have had one more baby after this census was taken in 1910 but before her death in February 1911. Dallas was age 3 at the time of this census, so it was taken in early 1910. I don't know for sure. I am still trying to research this.

Viola died in Swinton, MO. She is buried in Gravel Hill Cemetery, next to her father.

MO. She married IRA CATES December 25, 1906 in Stoddard Co. MO, son of RUFUS CATES and SUSAN ?. He was born Abt. 1889 in Missouri, and died February 1920 in Stoddard Co. MO.

Notes for ADA KEATING:

Ada actually spelled her last name "Keaton", but I have noticed that several of them did that back then.

Ada was born in October 1889 in Missouri. She was the youngest daughter of Robert and Nancy (Butler) Keating. She was the younger sister of Viola and Oly.

Ada married Ira Cates (Albert's younger brother) on December 25, 1906, in Stoddard Co., MO. She passed away in January of 1920 from influenza.

Descendants of James M. Butler

The 1920 Stoddard Co. census was taken around the end of Jan, first of Feb 1920. It listed:

CATES, Ira: head of family, age 32, widowed.

" , Clarence Henry, son, age 12, born in MO, same as both parents.

" , Nellie M., daughter, age 10, also born in MO.

" , Clara V., daughter, age 7 months, also born in MO.

Ira died in mid-February 1920, on the same day as his father and another family member. In the newspaper article of the triple death in the Cates family, it said that they all three died of influenza on the same day, Ira dying only two weeks after his wife died.

I don't know what happened to all of the children, but I think they may have gone to live with Oly and May. In May's obituary, it says that she took in her two sister-in-laws' children after they died and raised the children. I know for sure that she and Oly raised Dallas after Viola passed away, but I'm not sure if the other children were Ada's or possibly from May's other side of her family. Will have to find out later. Albert Cates, Dallas' father, also died in 1920 of influenza.

Notes for FRED ALBERT BUTLER:

Fred A. Butler Sr. was born at St. Francis, Arkansas on 17 June 1898. He was one of four children born to Noah A. Butler and Anne B. (Jones) Butler.

Josie A. (Carey) Butler was born at Marmaduke, Arkansas on 20 February 1907.

She was the second child of seven born to W.W. Cary and Nancy Meda (Trantham) Cary. She lived in that area until her family moved to Senath, Mo. in the fall of 1919. It was here that she and Fred became acquainted.

Fred was living near Monette, Arkansas at this time. The Carey's lived in Senath a short time and then moved to Sikeston, Missouri in 1922. They moved in with Zelmer C. Butler for a brief period until they found their own place. Fred and Josie both had a Sikeston address when they married on 17 November 1923 at New Madrid, Missouri. Fred had been married previously to Fannie (Allen) Butler. One child (girl) was born to this union and she died at birth or in infancy.

Their first born child, Fred A. Jr, was born while they lived at a Matthews, Missouri mailing address. It was probably south of Sikeston near the Matthews, Missouri turnoff which is in New Madrid county. Their second born, Sherman E., was born at Sikeston, Missouri where they lived approximately one mile west of town and ran a small dairy farm in Scott county. Prior to 1932 they moved to RFD #3, Matthews, Missouri. Their remaining four sons were born here. Born at this address were Carol M., Jairl A., Bobby R., and Herschel L. Butler. This area is known as Big Ridge and is located approximately five miles southeast of Canalou, Missouri. There were other Butlers' living nearby, namely, Zelmer C. (A brother), Jessie James (Jake), James Asberry (Ab or Asbury) and Leslie (Les). Jake, Ab and Les were cousins of Fred Sr.

They rented a farm at the Big Ridge location from the Whiffan Estate and the overseer was Herschel Tyre. Walter Bronson and Z. C. Butler also rented from the Whiffan Estate. Fred Sr. and Josie bought a forty acre farm one-half mile East of Dexter, Missouri (Highway 60) in 1942. They also rented additional property here from the McGaughey family. They sold this property in 1954 and bought a eighty acre farm five miles West of Bloomfield, Missouri on Highway J. They still had this farm when Fred Sr. died on 31 January 1973 at Mt. Vernon, Missouri. Josie Butler retained this farm until February 1990. She lived with Sherman and Jean Butler at Poplar Bluff, Missouri for a year or so prior to February, 1990. Herschel L. Butler became her guardian about this time and she moved to Belleville, Illinois. She lived at Rosewood Health Care Center in Belleville, Illinois until her death on 27 July, 1995.

Notes for NOAH ATHLEEN BUTLER:

In the 1900 census, Sam Humphry, age 42, boarder and Anna Dukes, age 11, orphan are living in the Noah Butler household.

It is unclear if Noah was legally married to his niece Flora Butler but they were "run out of Missouri" for living together. They traveled in a covered wagon to an Indian Reservation near Fort Sill, Oklahoma, around 1912. They stayed there a year or two and then started back toward Senath, Dunklin Co. MO. On the way back from Oklahoma, Flora disappeared. Everyone thought Noah had killed Flora and their child. It was learned years later that she had run away from Noah taking the baby with her.

Flora was later located in Springfield, Missouri along with her child. She was working at the bus station in Springfield, Missouri. Flora and the child disappeared and were never heard from again.

During the time Noah and Flora were gone, many family members in Arkansas and Missouri were angry and the often-discussed hunting Noah down and dealing out their own brand of "Bootheel Justice".

Noah died in Senath, Missouri shortly after returning alone from the Indian Reservation.

Notes for JAMES JEFFERSON ROBERTS:

'Square' Peg? No, he's probably just Decatur County's oldest sports fan!

He's 93 years old and is, arguably, Decatur County's oldest living sports fan.

James "Square" Roberts, who was coach at Decaturville School in the 1950s and '60s, can spout off the scores, plays, and details of games he played in 1920s and '30s, as well as the scores and stats from games he coached later on. And what did he coach?

"Everything!" explained Square. "Back then you had one coach - I was girls' basketball and boys' everything else." To this day, say his son and daughter, former players still call him "Coach".

Roberts grew up in Decaturville and has always been a sports fan. "We just didn't have that much else to do back then," he recalled, although a few incidents with his cousin, Thomas Houston, come to mind that really don't have anything to do with athletics. Their mischief, Square says, was just a product of growing up on a rural farm.

"Me and Thomas, we used to roam the woods for fun. We played in the creek and rode bull calves, even though we weren't supposed to."

His son, Ronnie, said, "Daddy, tell about the time you and Thomas tied the washtub to the calf."

Square replied, "Well, me and Thomas thought it'd be fun to do that (tie a washtub to a calf) and ride it. The noise was so loud that it stirred up all of the cattle and they got riled up and all got loose. Of course we got caught, and we deserved a whoopin', but we didn't get one!"

A couple of other times, Thomas and Square put a cat into a butter churn to see if it could swim, and they tied two cats together and put them on a clothesline.

So, you see, athletics can turn future juvenile delinquents (just kidding, Square) into fine, outstanding young men.

At Decaturville School, Square and his friends grew to be active in basketball, where he played center, and football, where he played end. The legendary (in Decatur County, at least) C.A. Palmer was his coach.

Square's daughter, Anna Laura Wyatt, showed me a picture of her father's team in the early 30s. These were the days when players didn't have very much protective equipment. There was no such thing as a facemask penalty...simply because there was no facemask! Square explained that the leather helmets could be folded up and put in one's own back pocket. "You smashed your head pretty good, wearing those ole things," he said nonchalantly.

Helmets with no facial protection...hmmmmmm. So, out of curiosity, I asked if there was a penalty for gouging someone in the eyeballs, for example. His reply was instantaneous: "Naw. Not unless you got caught! Just like a facemask (penalty) now...sure you can do it if you don't get caught. It's a tough sport now...but it was even tougher then!"

In 2000, Square made the Jackson Sun All-Century West Tennessee Team, for winning all-tournament honors as a member of Decaturville School's basketball team in 1935-1937. Back then, his athletic prowess got the attention of UT Martin scouts, and Roberts went to college on both basketball and football scholarships. He became a star athlete at UT Martin.

He remembers not having any money, and being the cliché'd broke-country-boy-college-student. After all, he was on scholarship and came from a farm in rural Decatur County. And this was during the Depression. "Coach Grantham noticed I didn't have an overcoat. All the other boys had one though, and one day he told me to go downtown and pick up a package for him."

The package turned out to be a brand-new overcoat, just for Square. "I'll never forget that; Coach took care of his players," he maintained.

Every weekend, Roberts would have to thumb a ride home, where he helped out on the farm. His college career paid off; Roberts was leading scorer in his conference while on the basketball team, and learning from his coaches planted the seeds for his future athletic endeavors; coaching and refereeing.

After college, Square moved to Nashville, where he played semi-pro basketball for two years, while also working for the Brown Shoe Company.

Square began coaching at Decaturville School in the 1950s. He told me that he particularly enjoyed reading about Donald "Duck" Dickson in the Chronicle recently. (I appreciate the compliment, Square - I enjoyed doing the article and talking to the Dicksons.) Duck, who played for Parsons High School, was recently inducted into the Ole Miss Hall of Fame.

For those of you who don't remember, games between Parsons and Decaturville schools were a bitter rivalry, up through the 1980s. But Square will always recall the year that the Decaturville Rams defeated the Parsons Tigers, who featured Dickson in his prime. "The year was 1956, and we beat 'em 7-0. Anytime Decaturville could beat Parsons, well that was great!" He went on to say that Dickson was "the best player he'd ever seen from around here" and that he respected him tremendously.

He kept a strict curfew on his players: 10 p.m., even on weekends. "That's what's wrong with these teams today! They party all the time, stay out too late, and are too tired to play like they need to." Roberts explained how several players suffered the consequences of breaking curfew: a group of them got caught "partying it up in Jackson" and they had to sit out of play for two weeks.

To his children's dismay, this curfew applied to them as well! Anna Laura said, "There was one time I got to stay out past 10 and the school was having a New Years' Dance. Daddy let me go, but he said, "You better be back by 12:05!" she chuckles. "And I was a senior in high school!"

After his coaching career ended in the 1960s, he became a well-known referee, calling basketball and football games all over West Tennessee. And for those of you who grew up in Decaturville, you may remember the store he operated, which was located where the current Board of Education facilities are now.

His daughter, Anna Laura Wyatt, says her daddy is the biggest sports fan she knows. "You can go over there during the summer, and there'll be a baseball game on TV. He'll have it turned down, flipping channels, but he'll turn the radio up and listen to the St. Louis Cardinals. I'd say he's their oldest and biggest fan in Decatur County."

Square told me how he became a Cardinal fan: "Mr. Simmons at Decatur County Bank used to let us boys sneak in and listen to the old radio they had in there. It would fade in and out, but we got to hear a lot of games that way."

His son Ronnie added, "A few years ago, when Jack Buck (famed Cardinal announcer) was still alive, I traveled to St. Louis and met with Mike Shannon and Jack Buck. They were live on the radio. It was late, and I told them to say something to Daddy, even though it was late and I knew he was probably in bed or sleepy. Buck said, "Square Roberts in Decaturville, wake up!"

Ronnie continued, "We came home, and Daddy said, 'Jack Buck was talking to me on the radio.' So daddy was listening. We knew he would be."

Square also wants to make sure everyone knows that "Mark McGwire got a bad deal about the Hall-of-Fame thing" this year, and that "if it weren't for McGwire and Sosa's home run race back in the late '90s, baseball would have never recovered from the strike a few years earlier."

Square's living room is dotted with UT checkerboard pillows and other various sports-related items. He enjoys all kinds of events on a wide-screen TV that he watches whenever he can, from his favorite recliner, pipe in hand.

I asked him who was his favorite college team, despite the obvious. He looked me straight in the eyes and said, "There was many a time when me and Judge England (well-known Decatur County Judge and Vanderbilt Alumnus) went to UT/Vandy games together. We sat together...course he was pulling for Vandy, and I pulled for UT. I had a friend I went to school with, Cheek Duncan, who went on to play for UT. I had to cheer for Cheek and I was and always have been Vol fan!"

Descendants of James M. Butler

That isn't just football, folks...he might be the Lady Vols' biggest fan too: "Doesn't matter...I like 'em both. Girls, too. Watch them whenever I can. Good game the other night against LSU, wasn't it?"

Finally, I asked Square which is his favorite pro football team. I was pretty sure I knew the answer. "Peyton Manning's team...the Colts! Peyton Manning is the finest quarterback in history," he said with an authoritative nod. "Best ever played." Square was one happy fan, just like the rest of Vol Country, on Super Sunday.

Square still resides on the same farm in Decaturville where he grew up. His first wife, Naomi, passed away in 1972, and a second wife, Clara, died about 10 years ago. Though he still lives independently, his children, Ronnie and Anna Laura, check in on him often. He has 5 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren.

Notes for MARY LYNN MONTGOMERY:

Mary Lynn remembers Papa Lancaster sitting either on the front porch on the homemade willow furniture or in the winter time inside by the fire place. She remembers Mama Lancaster with her ever smiling face. Mama Lancaster was always happy to see anyone who came to see her.

Mary Lynn remembers while a group of cousins were together playing, we got permission to go across the corn field to visit Uncle Curry and Aunt Betty. Before we reached our destination, we missed my little sister Melba. All of us went back to find her and she had fell asleep in a corn middle holding a baby doll.

MO, and died February 03, 1992 in Dexter, Stoddard Co. MO. He married (1) SYLVIA COX Abt. 1927, daughter of IRA COX and SALLY ?. She was born 1912 in Missouri, and died 2005 in St. Louis, Missouri. He married (2) SARAH CLEMENTINE FOPAY January 01, 1942 in Popular Bluff, Butler Co. MO. She was born January 01, 1913 in Kennett, Dunklin Co. MO, and died April 15, 1965 in Dexter, Stoddard Co. MO. He married (3) WILMA MAXINE BORDERS October 04, 1969 in Popular Bluff, Butler Co. MO.

Notes for DALLAS ROBERT KEATING:

Dallas, son of Viola (Keating) Nunn, was born on April 8, 1906, in Stoddard Co., MO. His father was Albert Cates. Viola died when Dallas was four, almost five years old. He was raised by Oly and May after she passed away.

Dallas was first married to Sylvia Cox. They were married in the early 1920s. They were married for several years before divorcing, but they never had any children together. I am acquainted with Joyce Cato, who is one of Sylvia's daughters. Joyce told me that Sylvia was always fond of Dallas, even in all the years after they had divorced. She attended his funeral in 1992. Sylvia died in 2005 in St. Louis, MO; she was in her 90s, and she had suffered from Alzheimer's Disease for a few years.

Dallas' second wife was Sarah Clementine (Fopay) Keating, who was born on January 1, 1913, in Kennett, MO. She was my grandmother. Dallas and Clementine were married on January 1, 1942, in Poplar Bluff, MO. They had one child, my father, William Robert Keating. Clementine died on April 15, 1965, at her home in Dexter, MO. She died of acute leukemia, having been ill for 3 months prior to her death. She is buried in the Bloomfield Cemetery next to Dallas.

Dallas' third wife was Wilma Maxine (Borders) Keating. They married on October 4, 1969, in Poplar Bluff, MO. They divorced --- I'm not sure when --- but I know that Dallas was living alone in 1985, so it was before that.

Dallas died on February 3, 1992. He and Clementine are buried next to her parents in the Bloomfield Cemetery.

- research of Lisa Boyle

In the 1910 census, Dallas is recorded as Dallas Nunn, daughter, living in the household of his stepfather, Elmore Nunn.

In the 1920 census, Dalas Keating is living in the household of his grandmother, Lidie Henderson.

Notes for DR. WILLIAM RALPH BUTLER:

Dr. Ralph Butler is chair of the Department of Physics and Engineering Science at Lipscomb University in Nashville, TN. His research interests include High Energy Physics. He is participating in study of production of mesons containing the charm quark with Professors Johns, Sheldon, and Webster from Vanderbilt University.

The Lipscomb News, July 1996: More News/Butler moves back to Physics

Students looking for Dr. Ralph Butler this fall won't find him in his usual place.

Butler, who has been director of campus information systems since 1982, is usually found in the Information Systems Services office.

But after 14 years in that role, Butler has decided to go back to the classroom and to the job he had before ISS came calling - as chair of the department of physics and engineering science.

Butler is one of six new department chairs at Lipscomb this fall. Joining him are Hazel Arthur, sociology and social work; Dr. Gerald Moore, music (from acting chair to chair); Dr. Michael Moss, Bible; Dr. Joyce Rucker, education; and Dr. Jim Thomas, communication.

"I'm looking forward to being back in the classroom. I miss the students. Every time I go to Homecoming I know fewer and fewer people. It's a good way to get back in contact with students and be on the front lines of what the school is all about," Butler said.

Most folks associate Butler with the development of administrative computing on campus, but his involvement really dates to the beginning of academic computing instruction on campus in 1971.

One computer course, taught by Frank Kyle, was in the curriculum when Butler returned from graduate school in 1971. Kyle and Butler put together an academic computing system that featured a remote connection to Vanderbilt University's system in 1972.

Several computer courses were added as the years progressed. Several terminals were added to the system in 1978, ultimately leading to establishment of computer science and computer science-business majors.

The university purchased a Digital Equipment Corp. VAX 11/780 in 1982, and administrative functions were brought on campus. That launched a progression toward today's system which features about 250 times the computing power of the 11/780. And that's before considering the 600 personal computers on campus, each of which are several times more powerful than the 780 and are linked by a fiber optic network installed in 1991.

"With respect to resources we have for students, we are certainly above average by a considerable margin for schools of our size," Butler said.

Descendants of James M. Butler

"We believe we have a strong curriculum. We have already started a project to reevaluate the curriculum in light of current practice and see what we need to change. We need to emphasize more desktop applications, more of the network client-server environment," Butler said.

Even with changes in curriculum, the goal of the department remains the same, he said.

"Our goal has always been to train students to be leaders, managerial material, who know how to keep up with the field and not just be mechanics," Butler said.

"We need to teach skills, but we need to teach students that there's more to it than that. That's been our philosophy all along."

Road Supervisor Keeton is Grateful to Voters

Descendants of James M. Butler

As Decatur County Road Supervisor, it appears that 20-year veteran David Keeton has the county oil house running like the proverbial "well-oiled machine". Keeton runs unopposed again in August.

Keeton and his wife, Judith Ballinger Keeton, are lifelong Decatur Countians. Judith has been with the post office for twenty-five years. They have a daughter, Kari Keeton Voughtman in Leabon.

Keeton offered the people of the county the following message: I would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to all the people of Decatur County for allowing me to serve as your Road Supervisor. It has been a pleasure to work for each of you.

Through the years, I have tried to divide our employee(s) and equipment equally throughout the county and I feel that our employees have done a good job. We will continue to do our best for all of Decatur County.

I am asking for your vote and continued support in the August election.

The Lancaster Descendants, Patricia Ann Maners, July 4, 1991

Dorothy remembers going to the barn and helping Mama Lancaster and Mama hold the sheep while Mama Lancaster and Mama sheared the sheep.

Dorothy remembers going with Geneva to milk. Geneva had a big bucket and I had a little red jelly bucket. Junior would follow us and get a stick and poke the old cow and the cow would kick the milk over and spill it. I would cry. Geneva would say "don't cry, I will get him one of these days." Junior poked the cow again and Geneva squirted him in the face with the milk.

Butler Wants To Keep Doing What She Loves: Working For The People

Bonnie Butler says you either love your small town or you hate it.

"And I love mine!", she states emphatically. "We think this is a good place and it is worth the time and effort to make it even better. I have really enjoyed serving on the city council."

"We" is Butler and her husband, Ronnie of 32 years. Butler was born and raised in Decatur County and Ronnie is from Jackson. They have one daughter, Becky White, wife of Brian White and mother to Zane David White. The Whites live in Scotts Hill.

Butler states without hesitation that her grandson is the "love of her life!".

Butler works for the State Department of Health in Health Care Facilities out of Jackson. She supervises support staff throughout West Tennessee. Still, she finds time to promote Parsons and Decatur County at every turn.

When the News Leader caught up with her, she had just returned from a trip to Nashville trying to secure funds for a loan to help the city extend a water supply pipeline from the Tennessee River inland to the city. She offered the following statement:

"On June 6th the citizens and business owners of Parsons will go to the polls to elect a Mayor and seven (7) Council members. In 1998, I was elected to the council and have <deleted>..."

He married (1) JUDITH ? August 31, 1964. He married (2) ELSIE PALMER October 14, 1967.

Notes for WILLIAM ROBERT KEATING:

Known as "Bill", my father was born on September 15, 1945, in Detroit, Michigan. He was the only child of Dallas and Clementine Keating. He first married my mother, Judith, on August 31, 1964. They were together until spring of 1965, and then they separated. They divorced shortly after I was born in November 1965.

Bill's second wife was Elsie (Palmer) Keating. They married on October 14, 1967; Elsie was 18 and from Bloomfield. Bill and Elsie had one child, William Robert Keating, Jr. They always called him "Booger", which he still answers to today at age 36. I call him Billy, 'cause I refuse to call him "Booger". Billy was born in August of 1969. Billy now lives in Eunice, NM, with his wife, Angie, and their two children, Shelby, a son, age 13, and Brittany, a daughter, age 12. They are Angie's children from a previous marriage, but I believe Billy has adopted them.

Elsie divorced bill in late 1991-early 1992, I believe. She married Jim Fry of Bloomfield and they live in Aquilla now. Elsie and I talk very frequently.

She met (1) ?. She married (2) STEVEN COOPER October 15, 1993. She married (3) TIMOTHY KIRKPATRICK March 01, 2001.

Notes for LISA DAWN BOYLE:

I was born on November 1, 1965. As I said before, my parents separated while my mother was pregnant with me, and then they divorced shortly after my birth. I never knew that Bill was my father until 1984, and then I met him in spring of 1985. I was raised by my mother and my step-father. I have two daughters, Hailey Jordan Boyle and April Michelle (Boyle) Bryant, who are the great-great-great-granddaughters of Nancy (Butler) Keating. Hailey was born on March 11, 1986, and April was born on April 23, 1987.

My first husband was Steven Cooper. We married on October 15, 1993, and divorced by April 1997. We had no children together. My second husband was Timothy Kirkpatrick. We married on March 1, 2001, and divorced in April 2005, and we also had no children together. I am currently living alone --- and loving it!

Hailey married Nathaniel Lee Minks on April 11, 2003, in Dexter, MO. She gave birth to my precious granddaughter, Laney Joleigh Minks, on December 22, 2003. Laney only weighed 4 lb., 6 oz. and was 15 1/2 inches long. Laney is the great-great-great-great-granddaughter of Nancy Andelite (Butler) Keating. April is expecting her first child on this coming July 11th. We don't know yet whether it is a boy or girl. I'm hoping for a boy, because Billy was the last boy born into our branch of the family, and that was back in 1969.

I am the office manager at Wallace & Owens CountryMart (a supermarket) in Dexter, MO. My main hobby is genealogy, but I also enjoy sewing, crocheting, embroidering, etc. I keep Laney almost every weekend. We go to church at Friendship Baptist in Dexter. I lead a very quiet lifestyle, so there's really not much more to tell. My family history is very important to me, I guess partly because I didn't know my father until I was already an adult. I try to go around to all the cemeteries at least once every year or two and put flowers on as many family graves as I can. I just have such a strong desire to know as much as I can about my ancestors --- I'll probably be doing this until the day I die. No one else in my immediate family is the least bit interested in our family history, so I'm pretty much on my own with it. (Elsie is interested some, but no one else.) I think that Viola and Ada are the ones I'm most fascinated with. I think that it's such a tragedy that they both died so young. I am eager to learn anything and everything I can about them, as well as everyone else.

1. PATRICK HENRY<sup>5</sup> BUTLER (CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS<sup>4</sup>, JAMES<sup>3</sup>, ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup>, CHRISTOPHER<sup>1</sup>) was born August 12, 1826 in Shelby Co. AL, and died May 18, 1908 in Wayne Co. TN (Source: Headstone, "He was a kind and affectionate husband, a fond father, and a friend to all."). He married AGNES TERRY DANIEL October 01, 1850 in Marshall Co. TN (Source: (1) John Russell Butler research, found in Patrick Henry Butler pension file., (2) Marshall Co. TN marriage records, G.R. May, J.P.), daughter of THOMAS DANIELS. She was born August 14, 1828 in Alabama (Source: Headstone.), and died March 22, 1903 (Source: Headstone, Wife of P. H. Butler, "Sleep on sweet mother and take thy rest. God called thee home, he thought it best.").

Notes for PATRICK HENRY BUTLER:

Patrick Henry Butler is the son of Christopher Columbus Butler and Mahala Cole. He was born in Shelby Co. AL in 1826 after his parents moved there from Georgia about 1819. When Patrick was four years old, he moved with his parents to adjoining Coosa Co. AL. About 1848, he married Agnes Terry Daniel, daughter of Thomas Daniel. In 1852, they adopted Harriet Catherine Butler, daughter of Patrick's brother Russell Benjamin, when Harriet's mother died. Patrick and Agnes' adopted daughter, Harriett is their oldest surviving child.

By 1860 Patrick and Agnes had moved to Fayette Co. AL. They lived next door to Patrick's sister Mary Ann who had probably married Agnes's brother, James Daniel. Patrick's mother Mahala Cole Butler is living with Mary Ann and James Daniel. About ten miles away in adjoining Walker Co., Patrick's brother James is living on a land grant that he received in 1854.

Patrick holds the distinction of having served in the calvary in both the Union Army and the Confederate Army during the Civil War. His military service is detailed below.

Around 1870, Patrick and his brother James moved their families north into Lauderdale Co. AL. George Handley also moved from Fayette Co. about this same time and may have traveled with the Butler's north. George Handley is in Lauderdale Co. by 1870. By 1880, Patrick and his family are living in Lauderdale Co. while James and his family have moved further north to Decatur Co. TN.

At some point, Patrick and Agnes moved to a 100 acre farm in the seventh civil district of Wayne Co. TN. They raised seven surviving children who married and blessed Patrick and Agnes with numerous descendants. By 1900, in their seventies, Patrick and Agnes are living with their youngest surviving daughter Elizabeth Blasingame in Wayne Co. TN. Agnes died in 1903 and Patrick in 1908. They are both buried at the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery near Cypress Inn in Wayne Co. TN.

In the 1850 census, Patrick is living in the household of James Daniels. Patrick's sister Mary Ann is married to James Daniels.

In the 1900 census, Patrick and Agnes Butler are living in the Thomas Blasingame household. Patrick is listed as a "pensioner".

Harriet Catherine Butler was raised by Patrick and Agnes Butler after the death of her Mother in 1852. In the 1860 census, she is living in the Patrick and Agnes Butler household in Fayette Co. AL. Harriet Catherine Butler is the daughter of Patrick's brother Russell Benjamin Butler.

Patrick Henry Butler's Military Service

Patrick Henry Butler was born on August 12, 1826, in Shelby County, AL. He was the son of Christopher Columbus and Mahala Cole Butler. On October 1, 1850, he married Agnes Tarrah Daniel in Marshall County (Lewisburg), TN. Records of this marriage were only recently discovered. In the 1850 census for Marshall County, there was at least one other Butler household in the county at that time. It has not been determined if these were relatives of Patrick. In 1860, Patrick was living in Fayette County, AL, near his brother James M. Butler.

The following information comes from his military records. There are no records available that we can find that give the exact date of Patrick's enlistment into Confederate service. He is listed in Co. H., 6th Regiment, AL Cavalry. In an affidavit in Patrick's pension file, he states that he was conscripted and carried into service in late 1863 and placed under Colonel Pickett. It should also be noted that when he entered the CSA he either left six children and an expecting wife, or seven children and wife. There is no more documentation of his Confederate service. According to his Union military record he was captured by Union forces on May 26, 1864, near Decatur, AL. His capture, along with the following dates, is documented in his Union file. From Decatur he was next documented in Nashville, TN. May 30, 1864, shipped from Nashville to Louisville, KY. May 30, 1864, received at Louisville, KY. June 4, 1864, shipped from Louisville, KY to Rock Island, IL. June 6, 1864, arrived at Rock Island, IL.

Rock Island Prison has often been called the Andersonville of the North. Although the death rate was very high among prisoners, this rate decreased significantly after the diseased prisoners were separated. According to information, the prisoners were fed one meal per day consisting of approximately 12 oz. cornbread, 4 1/2 oz. salt meat, and 2 oz. beans. The bread was shaped like bricks and according to one prisoner's diary, it was about as hard. Some days they were fed as late as 2:00 p.m., and other days not fed at all. Rats and mice were eaten when they could catch them. It was reported that even dogs came up missing. It is probably impossible for us to imagine the conditions and hardships of this time in history. (More information about this prison is available on their Web site).

On October 6, 1864, Patrick signed an oath of allegiance to the US, for which he received $100.00 bounty and was placed with the US (Rebs) Volunteers Co. E., 2nd Regiment. He was then assigned to one year of frontier service. The term, Reb, must have been a way of identifying ex-Csoldiers.

This is the way it is stated on the enlistment papers. At the time of his enlistment, Butler was described as being age 40, complexion dark, hair dark, eyes grey, and height 5 ft. 7 in.

After his enlistment on October 6, 1864, Patrick is next documented on March 18, 1865, at Fort Riley, KS, as being sick. Patrick states in a later affidavit that he suffered severe frostbite of both feet while en route to Fort Zero in January 1865, and was treated at the post hospital at Fort Riley. We think this was probably meant to be Fort Zarah which was near present day Great Bend, KS. In another affidavit, he states that the frostbite occurred while marching from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Riley. After much thought concerning these two different statements, we think he may have left Fort Leavenworth with Fort Zarah being his destination. However, since Fort Zarah is approximately 125 miles southwest of Fort Riley he probably would have passed through Fort Riley. The unanswered question is why he does not appear on Fort Riley records until March 18, 1865? Could it be possible that even after suffering the frostbite, he continued on to Fort Zarah only to be returned to Fort Riley in March to the hospital? Affidavits from doctors in later years reveal that Patrick had no toenails on either foot as a result of the severe frostbite. On March 18, 1865, Patrick was reported as being sick at Fort Riley. On March 31, 1865, he returned to duty. April through October 1865, he was present on roll call at Fort Riley. On November 7, 1865, he mustered out as a private at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

At this point we do not know where his wife Agnes and the family were living. In the 1880 Lauderdale County, AL, census he is listed as living in Township 1, Range 12. This extends from near Threet north through the Johnson Crossroads area up to the state line and includes the May Branch area. According to his original pension file, dated August 14, 1882, Patrick states he has lived in the Cypress Inn area since being released from service. Further affidavits from his neighbors lead us to believe that he actually resided very near the state line in the area of present day May Branch Loop Road. Affidavits dated 1887-1891 from Thaddeus Montgomery, Eli Spain, Thomas J. Cypert, all state that he has lived near them for 20 to 25 years. Calculating the dates, Patrick and family probably moved into the area around 1867. Eli Spain states in one affidavit that he was in service with Patrick in January 1865 in Kansas when he suffered the frostbite. Records also show that Eli and Patrick were incarcerated together at Rock Island. They also signed oaths of allegiance seven days apart and served afterward in the same regiment. Both men were mustered out on November 7, 1865. While there is no way to know, it is possible or maybe even probable that Patrick and Eli traveled together from Fort Leavenworth to Wayne County. From 1865 until 1882 there is no other record of Patrick other than these affidavits. Land records have also been searched during this period with no success. The Thaddeus Montgomery and Eli Spain home place locations are known.

On August 14, 1882, Patrick made his first pension application due to disability or invalid, as it was known at that time. The pension application was approved on August 26, 1882, to begin at a rate of $4.00 per month.

Apparently, it was a requirement that every so often Patrick had to be examined by a doctor and send this in along with an affidavit from someone stating his health condition and area of residency. Information from doctor's examination reports that by this time his health was beginning to fail.

Patrick remained in the Cypress Inn area until 1886, when an affidavit states his address is District 1, Decatur County, Bath Springs, TN. He may have been possibly living with his brother James M. or his eldest son Thompson Christopher. In 1888, Patrick was living back in Cypress Inn. In 1893, his pension increased to $12.00 per month. In 1900, Patrick was living with his daughter, Elizabeth Blasingame near Lutts, TN. By this time, according to several doctor affidavits, Patrick is getting in extremely bad health, suffering from numerous ailments. His weight was reported as 122 pounds.

February, 1901, is where we find Patrick's first recorded land purchase. He purchased 100 acres from F.M. Foster for the amount of $65.00, cash in hand. We have spent numerous hours in the Wayne County Register's office trying to determine the exact location of this land without success. According to Wayne County deed books, it was located on Spout Springs Branch/Weatherford Creek, we believe to be in the Martin Mills area. However, taking into consideration Patrick's health at this time it is doubtful if he ever lived on this land. In 1907, Patrick sold this land to his youngest child, James Russell, who was living very near the area in Cypress Inn where he was probably born in 1869. It is also probably very likely that Patrick was living with James Russell at this time and continued to do so until his death one year later.

Patrick's last pension check, #692124, paid on May 4, 1908, was $12.00. He died on May 18, 1908, and is buried alongside Agnes, his wife of 52 years, at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Highway 227, Wayne County, TN. This final resting place we think is within two or three miles of where Patrick and Agnes lived a good part of their latter years.

Notes for THOMPSON CHRISTOPHER BUTLER:

Family stories refer to Thompson as a "Little Black Dutch" because of his short stature and his dark complexion.

There are many theories about who the Black Dutch were. The one that seems to be the most accepted is that it is not "Dutch" as in those of Dutch descent, but Deutsche as in of German descent. A similar name is the Pennsylvania Dutch which are actually of German descent. The theory is that the Black Dutch are descended from the Germans that live in the Black Forest. This area of Germany was at one time much larger than it is now and the inhabitants are much darker than other Germans.

Wayne County Historian - On Sunday, 2 December 1990, the Wayne County Historical Society honored all the veterans of World War I. As part of the program, surviving veterans and the families of deceased veterans were asked to submit to the Society a biography of the veteran and his activities during the war.

BUTLER, REUBEN VERNOR, was born 25 July 1894, the son of Thompson C. BUTLER and Mary Hulda HAY. He was a brother to Henry Arthur BUTLER. During the war he was stationed at the Panama Canal. Date of induction and discharge not given. After the war, he returned to Lutts, Tennessee. Later he worked as a carpenter in Memphis, Tennessee and at Lutts. He spent several years working at Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Reuben later returned to Memphis and finally to Lutts, Tennessee where he served as a deputy sheriff. During his service as deputy sheriff, he was shot and paralyzed. He spent 12 years at the Veterans Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. He died 11 June 1966 and was buried in Pinhook Cemetery, Lutts, Tennessee. He never married.

The Wayne County Historian, Volume 18, Number 3 - September 2005

Reuben Vernor Butler

Reuben Vernor Butler was born July 25, 1894, in Decatur County, TN, the son of Thompson Christopher Butler and Mary Hulda Hay Butler (Thompson was a brother to the author's great grandpa James Russell Butler). Following his wife's death of May 1, 1900, Thompson moved to Wayne County. Shortly after this Thompson married Nancy Wade Strickland and had a son, Matthew Wade Butler, (half brother to Vernon) born on May 18, 1905. Marriage records show he married Nancy on July 24, 1904. I assume Vernor came to Wayne County with his father. The 1910 census shows Vernor as living in Wayne County.

During World War I, Vernor was stationed at the Panama Canal. After the war he returned to Lutts, TN. He worked as a carpenter in Memphis, driving back and forth home to Wayne County every weekend. He also worked as a carpenter in Lutts. He later spent several years working at Oak Ridge, TN.

From the earliest records I can locate, he first became a Deputy Sheriff in Wayne County on June 5, 1948. He remained in this position until February 14, 1953. On April 13, 1953, he became a constable and remained in this position until he was wounded and paralyzed in the line of duty on May 18, 1954. From what I can find out by way of newspapers and other sources, after he became constable his primary job was raiding moonshine stills throughout rural Wayne County. The Wayne County News refers to Vernor a lot as Special Officer. I am led to believe he could have been working in part or had connections to what was then the Tennessee Alcohol Tax Unit. He also raided stills in Hardin County. Other information states that he and Mr. John Allen, a county constable who later became the Wayne County Sheriff, were good friends.

Some of the stills Constable Vernor Butler and John Allen destroyed were in the Middle Cypress area on September 18, 1953, and several in the Olive Hill community east of Pickwick.

The following is a combination of information taken from The Wayne County News and from information I have gathered from interviewing people who knew Vernor. I discovered that Vernor Butler was one of the most aggressive special law enforcement officers in Wayne County. He was shot and seriously injured at approximately 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday afternoon, May 18, 1954, after raiding a whiskey making outfit close to May Branch Loop Road near the Tennessee/Alabama state line. Vernor, working alone, raided the still and arrested one of the two men there. The other individual there made his escape. The shooting was done, according to the report, by the captured man, as Mr. Butler was pouring a quantity of the liquor into a bottle from a larger container to be used as evidence. The shot that felled Mr. Butler was fired from his own 38 caliber revolver, but the second bullet missed as Mr. Butler fell. He would have been shot again as he lay on the ground but persuaded his assailant he was fatally wounded. The man asked him if he knew his name, and he said he did not, whereupon he left taking the officer's revolver with him. Mr. Butler was found about 9:00 p.m. that night by coon hunters and taken immediately to a Florence hospital.

It was reported the bullet passed entirely through his body from right to left, and that his gun holster belt possibly kept him from bleeding to death. Following this ordeal, Mr. Butler spent several years in the Veterans Hospital in Memphis, TN. He was never married. He passed away on June 11, 1966, and is buried in Pinhook Cemetery in Lutts, TN. I would gladly accept any information on his brothers and sister or any information about this or with a different version of the story.

Vernor's siblings were Omer Witt Butler, Benjamin Harrison (Ben) Butler, Henry Arthur Butler, Terry Cordelia (Cordie) Butler Strickland, William Hobart Butler, Matthew Wade Butler and Earl Cranston Butler.

Sources of information for this article were the Wayne County Court House records and The Wayne County News. Also, Stan Butler found some of this information while researching the Thompson Christopher Butler family. Article written and submitted by Russ Butler, 931-724-5702.

J. R. BUTLER, 73, IS LAID TO REST

Descendants of Patrick Henry Butler

Funeral Services Held on Monday Afternoon

James Russell Butler, aged 73, passed away Saturday midnight, at his home, 511 Stevenson Street, Florence, after a several weeks illness.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sallie Butler, four sons, Aubry and Westley of Florence, Clarke, of Cloverdale and Pat, of Dayton, O.; four daughters, Mrs. Louis Barnes and Mrs. J. T. Rickard, of Florence; Mrs. Ed Montgomery, of Iron City, Tenn., and Mrs. W. F. Ward[Nard], of Cloverdale, and one sister, Mrs. Frances Handley, of Texarkana, Tex.

The funeral was held Monday at 2 p. m., from the Methodist Church at Crystal Springs in Wayne County, Tenn. with Rev. J. D. Reid, of the Church of the Nazarene, Florence, officiating. Interment was in the adjoining cemetery, Fielder in charge.

Pallbearers were Paul Barnes, F. E. Rickard, R. H. Wilson, Eugene McCluskey, Bill Edwards, Mr. Fortenberry and Mr. Rideout.

Railroad Cemetery by Ed Byler

The real name for the church and cemetery is Pleasant Spring United Methodist Church and Cemetery. Everyone in my family always simply called it Railroad. The church was begun in 1892 when the old Mt. Heber (Whitten's Chapel) Church split in a dispute over an illegitimate child (or so I was told). The land for the church and cemetery was given by Warren Christopher House and his wife Mary Haddock House.

If you are coming from Florence, AL, take AL 17 (Chisholm Road) north from Florence. This changes into TN 13 at the state line. The church and cemetery are located northeast of the intersection of TN 227 (East) with TN 13. You can see both the church and the cemetery from 13, they are just off the highway.

If you are coming through Waynesboro, TN, take TN 13 South through Collinwood then about 13 miles south of Collinwood to the intersection with TN227 East.

The 1880 Lauderdale Co. census shows Belzora, age 12 and Russel, age 9. If this record is correct, they are not twins and Belzora did not die before she was one year old.

She was born November 07, 1898 in Tennessee, and died August 28, 1942.

Notes for HENRY ARTHUR BUTLER:

Wayne County Historian - On Sunday, 2 December 1990, the Wayne County Historical Society honored all the veterans of World War I. As part of the program, surviving veterans and the families of deceased veterans were asked to submit to the Society a biography of the veteran and his activities during the war.

BUTLER, HENRY ARTHUR, was born 7 Aug 1890, the son of Thompson C. BUTLER (6 May 1860 - 26 Nov 1942, buried Pinhook Cem.) and Mary Hulda HAY (25 Jan 1863 - 1 May 1910, buried in Decatur Co., TN). He was inducted in 1917 at Waynesboro, TN. He served in France as a medic. His siblings were Omer Witt BUTLER, Benjamin Harrison BUTLER, Reuben Vernor BUTLER, Terry Cordelia BUTLER and William Hobart BUTLER.

His part in the Medical Corps was to go behind the fighting and help the wounded and to care for the dead. He fought in the battles of Rhine River, Argonne Forest and along the Meuse, from Verdun to Sedan, from 26 Sep 1918 through Armistice.

The Battles of Argonne Forest, September 27 - October 10, 1918, were a series of fierce and decisive battles. Twelve divisions of the American Army broke through the supposedly impenetrable German line. This was a rocky wilderness where there were barbed wire entanglements.

Henry Arthur BUTLER married first to Hester TININ (1 Feb 1890 - 1 Sep 1926, buried Pinhook Cem, Wayne Co. TN). He married second to Clarice DANIELS LAWSON, (7 Nov 1898 - 28 Aug 1942, buried Lawson Cem. Wayne Co., TN). He married third to Lillie LUCAS of Hardin Co., TN. His children were by Hester: Mary Louise BUTLER, stillborn, 22 Aug 1923, buried at Pinhook; by Clarice: Martin Hay BUTLER, b. 1941.

After the war, Henry worked up North for several years. After Clarice's death, Henry moved to Martin, TN to live with his sister, Cordie and her husband, Charlie STRICKLIN. Cordie took care of Martin Hay BUTLER for three or four years.

Henry and son moved to Savannah to work for the Ice Company. He soon married Lillie. He died 19 May 1973 following a long illness and was buried at Pinhook Cemetery. Lillie died in a few years and Martin Hay BUTLER survives.

In the 1910 census, Henry A. Butler, 18, is living in the John M. Sinclair household as a hired farm hand.

1. James M. Butler, born Abt. 1813 in probably Elbert Co. GA; died Bet. 1891 - 1900 in Decatur Co. TN. He was the son of 2. Christopher Columbus Butler and 3. Mahala Cole. He married (1) Sarah Crawford. She was born Abt. 1815 in South Carolina, and died Bet. 1852 - 1854 in Winston Co. MS. She was the daughter of James Peter Crawford and Elizabeth ?. He married (2) Amanda Bishop August 01, 1854 in Coosa Co. AL (Source: Marriage License, Coosa Co. AL.). She was born September 1828 in Alabama, and died Bet. 1900 - 1910 in Decatur Co. TN.

Notes for James M. Butler:

James M. "Jim" Butler was born about 1813 probably in Elbert Co. GA. He was the son of Christopher Columbus "Kit" Butler and Mahala Cole. Kit and Mahala moved their family to Shelby Co. AL about 1819 and a short distance to Coosa Co. AL in 1832. The first record that we have of Jim is the 1850 census in Winston Co. MS. Jim married Sarah Crawford about 1835 and they had seven known children. Jim and Sarah lived in Alabama until about 1847 when they moved to Winston Co. MS. Sarah died after their son, Billy, was born in 1852.

Following Sarah's death, Jim returned to Coosa Co. AL at least long enough to marry Amanda Bishop in 1854. Amanda was an orphan or a widow with a three year old daughter, George Anne, when she married Jim. Amanda is living in the Samuel Pruett household in the 1850 census in Coosa Co.

In 1857, Jim purchased a land patent in Walker Co. AL. Jim and Amanda and their combined family moved there and acquired an adjoining tract of land from John Cargile. They did not stay in Walker Co. very long. In 1861, they sold their total land holdings to Noah and Mary Ann Pariss and moved to northern Alabama. Their youngest twin children were born near Tuscumbia in 1862. Jim and Amanda had five known children in addition to Amanda's daughter, George Anne.

By 1870, the family had made its way to Decatur Co. TN. Family tradition is that they were on their way west to Arkansas and stopped along the way in Decatur Co. and decided to stay. Thomas, John, James and Billy, sons from Jim's first marriage to Sarah Crawford, made the trip to Decatur County along with Jim and Amanda's five children. Jim and Sarah's sons, John and James showed up later in Arkansas so they may have continued the trip after the rest of the family stopped in Decatur Co.

Jim and Mandy and their sons farmed near Point Pleasant, TN but did not own any land. They seem to go from cotton crop to cotton crop with several liens showing up through the 1870's and 1880's in Decatur Co. TN. Their son, Columbus, was the first Butler land owner with a deed recorded in 1883. They seem to live a difficult life with Jim borrowing money in 1887 at age 74 with his gray horse and cotton crop as collateral. Jim died some time in the 1890's.

Mandy combined households with her youngest daughter, Virgie after Jim's death and the death of Virgie's husband. They were living in Henderson Co. TN near Scotts Hill in the 1900 census. Mandy died before 1910.

Winston Co. MS was formed from Choctaw Cession in 1833.

Coosa County AL was created in 1832 from lands ceded in the Creek Indian Treaty of Cusseta and from parts of Montgomery County. It is named for the Coosa River which forms the county's western boundary. The county seat is Rockford. During the 1870 and 1880's groups from Coosa County and other parts of Alabama settled in the Cleburne County Arkansas area. Stories in the Butler family indicate that the James Butler family was traveling to Arkansas when they decided to settle in Decatur County, Tennessee.

History of Walker County, Its Towns and Its Peoples, John Martin Dombhart, published 1937, Cayce Publishing Company, Thornton, Arkansas

"In 1855 a new Federal land law was enacted which made government lands available at twelve and a half cents per acre. This law caused another great migration into Walker, and almost as many settlers came into the county in 1855 as came in during the flush times of 1836."

Notes for Christina Mary Daniels:

According to Howard Butlers information his father, Jesse M. Butler, did research on the Butlers and according to this research there were seven children born of this marriage. If so, and assuming there were no multiple births, the below schedule would reflect their births. There were four children listed on the 1850 census, two other sources show a Harrett and a Sallie with no indication of ages.

Notes for Patrick Henry Butler:

Patrick Henry Butler is the son of Christopher Columbus Butler and Mahala Cole. He was born in Shelby Co. AL in 1826 after his parents moved there from Georgia about 1819. When Patrick was four years old, he moved with his parents to adjoining Coosa Co. AL. About 1848, he married Agnes Terry Daniel, daughter of Thomas Daniel. In 1852, they adopted Harriet Catherine Butler, daughter of Patrick's brother Russell Benjamin, when Harriet's mother died. Patrick and Agnes' adopted daughter, Harriett is their oldest surviving child.

By 1860 Patrick and Agnes had moved to Fayette Co. AL. They lived next door to Patrick's sister Mary Ann who had probably married Agnes's brother, James Daniel. Patrick's mother Mahala Cole Butler is living with Mary Ann and James Daniel. About ten miles away in adjoining Walker Co., Patrick's brother James is living on a land grant that he received in 1854.

Patrick holds the distinction of having served in the calvary in both the Union Army and the Confederate Army during the Civil War. His military service is detailed below.

Around 1870, Patrick and his brother James moved their families north into Lauderdale Co. AL. George Handley also moved from Fayette Co. about this same time and may have traveled with the Butler's north. George Handley is in Lauderdale Co. by 1870. By 1880, Patrick and his family are living in Lauderdale Co. while James and his family have moved further north to Decatur Co. TN.

At some point, Patrick and Agnes moved to a 100 acre farm in the seventh civil district of Wayne Co. TN. They raised seven surviving children who married and blessed Patrick and Agnes with numerous descendants. By 1900, in their seventies, Patrick and Agnes are living with their youngest surviving daughter Elizabeth Blasingame in Wayne Co. TN. Agnes died in 1903 and Patrick in 1908. They are both buried at the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery near Cypress Inn in Wayne Co. TN.

In the 1850 census, Patrick is living in the household of James Daniels. Patrick's sister Mary Ann is married to James Daniels.

In the 1900 census, Patrick and Agnes Butler are living in the Thomas Blasingame household. Patrick is listed as a "pensioner".

Harriet Catherine Butler was raised by Patrick and Agnes Butler after the death of her Mother in 1852. In the 1860 census, she is living in the Patrick and Agnes Butler household in Fayette Co. AL. Harriet Catherine Butler is the daughter of Patrick's brother Russell Benjamin Butler.

Patrick Henry Butler's Military Service

Patrick Henry Butler was born on August 12, 1826, in Shelby County, AL. He was the son of Christopher Columbus and Mahala Cole Butler. On October 1, 1850, he married Agnes Tarrah Daniel in Marshall County (Lewisburg), TN. Records of this marriage were only recently discovered. In the 1850 census for Marshall County, there was at least one other Butler household in the county at that time. It has not been determined if these were relatives of Patrick. In 1860, Patrick was living in Fayette County, AL, near his brother James M. Butler.

The following information comes from his military records. There are no records available that we can find that give the exact date of Patrick's enlistment into Confederate service. He is listed in Co. H., 6th Regiment, AL Cavalry. In an affidavit in Patrick's pension file, he states that he was conscripted and carried into service in late 1863 and placed under Colonel Pickett. It should also be noted that when he entered the CSA he either left six children and an expecting wife, or seven children and wife. There is no more documentation of his Confederate service. According to his Union military record he was captured by Union forces on May 26, 1864, near Decatur, AL. His capture, along with the following dates, is documented in his Union file. From Decatur he was next documented in Nashville, TN. May 30, 1864, shipped from Nashville to Louisville, KY. May 30, 1864, received at Louisville, KY. June 4, 1864, shipped from Louisville, KY to Rock Island, IL. June 6, 1864, arrived at Rock Island, IL.

Rock Island Prison has often been called the Andersonville of the North. Although the death rate was very high among prisoners, this rate decreased significantly after the diseased prisoners were separated. According to information, the prisoners were fed one meal per day consisting of approximately 12 oz. cornbread, 4 1/2 oz. salt meat, and 2 oz. beans. The bread was shaped like bricks and according to one prisoner's diary, it was about as hard. Some days they were fed as late as 2:00 p.m., and other days not fed at all. Rats and mice were eaten when they could catch them. It was reported that even dogs came up missing. It is probably impossible for us to imagine the conditions and hardships of this time in history. (More information about this prison is available on their Web site).

On October 6, 1864, Patrick signed an oath of allegiance to the US, for which he received $100.00 bounty and was placed with the US (Rebs) Volunteers Co. E., 2nd Regiment. He was then assigned to one year of frontier service. The term, Reb, must have been a way of identifying ex-Csoldiers.

This is the way it is stated on the enlistment papers. At the time of his enlistment, Butler was described as being age 40, complexion dark, hair dark, eyes grey, and height 5 ft. 7 in.

After his enlistment on October 6, 1864, Patrick is next documented on March 18, 1865, at Fort Riley, KS, as being sick. Patrick states in a later affidavit that he suffered severe frostbite of both feet while en route to Fort Zero in January 1865, and was treated at the post hospital at Fort Riley. We think this was probably meant to be Fort Zarah which was near present day Great Bend, KS. In another affidavit, he states that the frostbite occurred while marching from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Riley. After much thought concerning these two different statements, we think he may have left Fort Leavenworth with Fort Zarah being his destination. However, since Fort Zarah is approximately 125 miles southwest of Fort Riley he probably would have passed through Fort Riley. The unanswered question is why he does not appear on Fort Riley records until March 18, 1865? Could it be possible that even after suffering the frostbite, he continued on to Fort Zarah only to be returned to Fort Riley in March to the hospital? Affidavits from doctors in later years reveal that Patrick had no toenails on either foot as a result of the severe frostbite. On March 18, 1865, Patrick was reported as being sick at Fort Riley. On March 31, 1865, he returned to duty. April through October 1865, he was present on roll call at Fort Riley. On November 7, 1865, he mustered out as a private at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

At this point we do not know where his wife Agnes and the family were living. In the 1880 Lauderdale County, AL, census he is listed as living in Township 1, Range 12. This extends from near Threet north through the Johnson Crossroads area up to the state line and includes the May Branch area. According to his original pension file, dated August 14, 1882, Patrick states he has lived in the Cypress Inn area since being released from service. Further affidavits from his neighbors lead us to believe that he actually resided very near the state line in the area of present day May Branch Loop Road. Affidavits dated 1887-1891 from Thaddeus Montgomery, Eli Spain, Thomas J. Cypert, all state that he has lived near them for 20 to 25 years. Calculating the dates, Patrick and family probably moved into the area around 1867. Eli Spain states in one affidavit that he was in service with Patrick in January 1865 in Kansas when he suffered the frostbite. Records also show that Eli and Patrick were incarcerated together at Rock Island. They also signed oaths of allegiance seven days apart and served afterward in the same regiment. Both men were mustered out on November 7, 1865. While there is no way to know, it is possible or maybe even probable that Patrick and Eli traveled together from Fort Leavenworth to Wayne County. From 1865 until 1882 there is no other record of Patrick other than these affidavits. Land records have also been searched during this period with no success. The Thaddeus Montgomery and Eli Spain home place locations are known.

Ancestors of James M. and Patrick Henry Butler

On August 14, 1882, Patrick made his first pension application due to disability or invalid, as it was known at that time. The pension application was approved on August 26, 1882, to begin at a rate of $4.00 per month.

Apparently, it was a requirement that every so often Patrick had to be examined by a doctor and send this in along with an affidavit from someone stating his health condition and area of residency. Information from doctor's examination reports that by this time his health was beginning to fail.

Patrick remained in the Cypress Inn area until 1886, when an affidavit states his address is District 1, Decatur County, Bath Springs, TN. He may have been possibly living with his brother James M. or his eldest son Thompson Christopher. In 1888, Patrick was living back in Cypress Inn. In 1893, his pension increased to $12.00 per month. In 1900, Patrick was living with his daughter, Elizabeth Blasingame near Lutts, TN. By this time, according to several doctor affidavits, Patrick is getting in extremely bad health, suffering from numerous ailments. His weight was reported as 122 pounds.

February, 1901, is where we find Patrick's first recorded land purchase. He purchased 100 acres from F.M. Foster for the amount of $65.00, cash in hand. We have spent numerous hours in the Wayne County Register's office trying to determine the exact location of this land without success. According to Wayne County deed books, it was located on Spout Springs Branch/Weatherford Creek, we believe to be in the Martin Mills area. However, taking into consideration Patrick's health at this time it is doubtful if he ever lived on this land. In 1907, Patrick sold this land to his youngest child, James Russell, who was living very near the area in Cypress Inn where he was probably born in 1869. It is also probably very likely that Patrick was living with James Russell at this time and continued to do so until his death one year later.

Patrick's last pension check, #692124, paid on May 4, 1908, was $12.00. He died on May 18, 1908, and is buried alongside Agnes, his wife of 52 years, at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Highway 227, Wayne County, TN. This final resting place we think is within two or three miles of where Patrick and Agnes lived a good part of their latter years.

Notes for James Butler:

JAMES BUTLER served in the Military during the Revolutionary War as a resident of Mecklenburg County, Virginia. He moved to Wilkes (now Elbert) County, Georgia in a year or two after the war and applied for a Revolutionary War pension in Elbert County, Georgia, 21 Jan 1833. His pension was transferred to Alabama from the Georgia Agency. James certified 11 September 1841 that he had resided in Shelby County, Alabama since the last part of 1836.

His military service as follows

1. Drafted in the year 1778, for 2 months duty with Captain James Anderson Company, of Col John Burton's regiment.
2. Drafted in the year 1780, for 18 months duty with the companies of Captain Richard Swepson(?) and Captain Scott, of Colonial William Daris's Regiment. He was in engagement at "Woods Point" on the James River.
3. Drafted in the year 1781, for 2 months duty.

According to Howard Butler: the genealogists he conferred with there are more children than listed; however, their names have not been found.

The Heritage of Shelby County - In the 1785 Early Tax Digest of Wilkes County, Georgia, James received bounty land for his service in the War. He removed to Georgia right after 1790 to live on his land, which by then was located in Elbert County, formed from Wilkes County.

James was a resident of Elbert County for 46 years. He was a member first of Bethel "E" Baptist Church, and later in Elbert County of Falling Creek Baptist located on old Post Road, Elberton, Elbert County.

In 1833 James applied for and received a pension, the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 6, 1832.

In 1836, James along with neighbors and relatives, moved to Shelby County Alabama in a wagon train headed by Jordan Jones. Jordan had been a neighbor of James in Elbert County for 30 years, and helped James join his family in Alabama. On June 5, 1837 James applied to have his pension changed to his new residence in Alabama. He gave the following reasons for removing "from the State of Georgia - "because I have ten children who reside in Shelby County Alabama and I am desirous to spend the short residue of my life with them. This and this alone was the only cause which induced me to remove."

A grand daughter of James married a son of Jordan Jones. James died after June 1, 1840, and was buried in what later became the Jones-Bailey Cemetery on land belonging to Jordan. James was possibly the first person to have been buried there. A collection of stones in a built up rectangle with sloping sides and flattened top was placed over his grave site. Such mounds of stones were also used back in Georgia to marker earlier Butler graves. The cemetery is listed on the State Historical Registry.

James Butler was twice married and was the father of 21 children. On October 16, 1983, a monument was dedicated and placed by the Shelby Historical Society.

Notes for Zachariah Butler:

This Butler family story begins in Hanover County, Virginia in 1736 with the birth of Zachariah Butler. What is known of Zachariah is that he was a man of small stature at five foot four inches tall. He joined the Revolutionary War at the age of forty four on 2 September 1780 in Mecklinburg County, Virginia. Zachariah married Sarah Bowe, daughter of Henry Bowe (1680-?) an English emigrant, and Sarah Fitzpatrick. The Butler family had five children: 1)-James I, 2)-Patrick, 3)-Nathan, 4)-Zachariah and 5)-Nancy. After the war ended, the Butler family migrated to Wilkes County, Georgia (now Elbert County) in 1785. Zachariah died in Elbert County, Georgia in about 1800 and is buried in Fortsonia, Elbert County, Georgia.

First son James I (5 June 1758-1841) was born in St. Pauls Parish, Virginia. James served for 22 months in the Revolutionary War from Mecklinburg County, Virginia in 1778 to 1781 and was in the battle of Woods Point on the James River. He was a Private in Captain James Anderson's Company and Col. John Burton's Regiment. He was awarded a land grant in Wilkes County, Georgia for his service. He migrated to Wilkes County, Georgia in 1785 and lived there until 1836 when he migrated to Shelby County, Alabama to be near his children who were already living in Shelby County. James joined a wagon train under the command of Jordan Jones to make the journey to Alabama. James was married twice, first to Sarah Christopher, then to Disa. He was believed to be the father of 20-22 children. James I died in 1841 and was buried in the Jones Bailey Cemetery in Shelby County near the grave of his friend Jordan Jones. One of James' daughters, Sarah, married Willis Ozley and the Ozley family migrated to Shelby County, Alabama and is covered in more detail in the article The Family of John Willis Ozley in this book. One of James' sons, James II, married Elizabeth Hansard, daughter of William Hansard, also a Revolutionary War veteran, in Elbert County, Georgia on 23 December 1823 and this Butler family is covered in more detail in the article The Butler Family of Marion Jefferson Butler in this book.

Second son Patrick was also a veteran of the Revolutionary War and is buried in Fortsonia, Georgia with his father. The families of Patrick eventually migrated to Louisiana and possibly to Texas.

Third son Nathan and his family migrated to Morgan County, Georgia.

Fourth son Zachariah and his family migrated to Maury County, Tennessee in approximately 1810.

Fifth child and only daughter Nancy married John Snellings and lived in Elbert County, Georgia. Submitted by: John Robert Walker, 1616 Linda Vista Lane, Birmingham, AL 35226

STATUS OF SEARCH OF ZACHARIAH BUTLERS ANCESTORS by Janice Butler Turner and Larry Butler

My brother and I have spent the last ten years looking for evidence concerning our Zachariah. This is our slim list of facts.

Zachariah was born in 1736 in Hanover County Virginia, source, Zachariah enlistment in Revolutionary War at Chesterfield Courthouse in 1780.

Zachariah was in Hanover County in 1756, source, MAGAZINE OF VIRGINIA GENEALOGY XXV 1 01-FEB-1987 Accounts from the Store of Thomas Partridge & Co., Hanover Co., Virginia 1734-1756 Zachariah came to Wilkes County Georgia later cut off as part of Elbert County Georgia in 1785, source, Land Grant.

He had a wife named Mary in 1785, source, land transactions in Elbert County Georgia involving husband and wife. Zachariah died between 1814 and 1816-source, tax records of Elbert County Georgia. His Revolutionary War Marker is placed in a small family type cemetery on what is now the Dye home place in Elbert County Georgia. This land was part of Zachariah's original land grant when he came to Wilkes, later Elbert. Whether he is actually buried there is problematic. In 1756 in Hanover County Christopher pays off an account of his son Zachariah Butler, source "Virginia Genealogical Journal". Item 2A Christopher Butler in Hanover County was born between 1737 and 1742, source, VGPu 16 May 77 The Christopher who was the father of Zachariah had to be born prior to 1716. Joshua Butler and his wife Grace Paige had a son Christopher Butler who was a minor when Joshua's will was probated in 1725. King George County, VA; Will Book Joshua is the son of Thomas Butler and Jane Baynum Baldridge of Kent County Maryland. The pedigree of Thomas and Jane is documented.

Ancestors of James M. and Patrick Henry Butler

- The statement that his father was James has also never been associated with any documentation.
- There has been much speculation to the assignment of Zachariah's children to his wives, again we have not found nor seen any documentation to support any theory. We placed them all with Sarah but with the disclaimer we really do not know.
- We have seen unofficial reported death dates for Zachariah ranging from 1793 to 1838 any where from Elbert County Georgia to Virginia.
There has been a persistent erroneous belief in the existence of a son Zachariah Jr. who came to Maury Co., TN.

OUR HYPOTHESIS

That the Christopher in Hanover County Virginia in 1756, born before 1716 is indeed our Christopher. That the Christopher known to be born in 1747 is the son of Christopher and the brother of our Zachariah. That Christopher, the father of Zachariah, is the same Christopher that is the son of Joshua from King George County Virginia.

REASON

We have been unable to locate any other Christopher of the appropriate age, and Joshua's daughter Dorcas married a Welch and also ended up in Hanover County. (I know you can't prove a negative but it is the best we can do) If we connect to Joshua the line back is documented. If this is our line we are English, not Irish. The Butler's in our line do not appear to be large plantation owners and this seems to run consistently down most of our line.

There is an Edward Butler and family who came to Wilkes County about 1785 from Hanover County Virginia. He lived on the same waterway as a Christopher Butler. Source-"Virginia Genealogy Records". He and a Christopher signed petitions with respect to the Parish in Hanover County Virginia. He named a son Zachariah or Zachary. This Edward has a father Thomas E. and a mother Susannah Wade Butler. Source, Susannah Wades will in Hanover County Virginia. The possibility of these two lines merging prior to Thomas E. and Joshua needs further investigation.

Zachariah Butler(1736) by conventional acceptance had a son Joel who stayed in GA as did many of his descendants.

One of his descendants was William M. Butler, !!! . He was born abt 1880 and had 3 sons William P. b. 1912, John F. b 1924, James E. b 1925. In Coweta Co., GA in 1930. If anyone knows the family of either of these three men and if we are lucky enough to have a male in the line and someone interested enough in genealogy it would be a great help to have this DNA recorded. If his ancestor Joel was indeed the son of Zachariah his DNA will match a descendant of Patrick, known son of Zachariah who has his DNA on file.

WE ARE SOLICITING DIALOGUE, ARGUMENT, REBUTTAL AND ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE ABOVE. TRUST US, THERE IS NO WAY TO HURT OUR FEELINGS. WE ALSO ENCOURAGE EVERY DIRECT MALE DESCENDANT BUTLER WHO EVEN REMOTELY THINKS HE MAY DESCEND FROM VIRGINIA BUTLERS TO SERIOUSLY CONSIDER THE BUTLER DNA PROJECT.

- from the research of Janice Butler Turner and Larry Butler as recorded on www.butlerdna.org

  - ii. Christopher Butler, born Abt. 1747.

18. Henry Bowe, Jr. He married 19. Sarah Fitzpatrick.
